PEIPING, Mar. 2.—Chinese military officials late today admitted collapse of their defenses in Jehoi Province.

Routed by the advancing Japanese army which crumpled the main line of defense before Jehoi City, the Chinese are retreating swiftly
toward Chahar Province,
west of Jehoi, and southward toward the great wall.
Chinese officials reluctantly admitted to International News Service that "the show is over."

Defection Turns Tide Collapse of the Chinese defenses was attributed to the defection of General Sun Tien-Ying, leader of the Chinese forces at Chihfeng.

General Sun and his entire force of 200,000 regulars and irregulars went over to the Manchukuo side, acknowledging allegiance to Japan's puppet state in Manchuria and surrendering the important City of Chihfeng.

The desertion of General Sun came as a terrific blow to Marshal Chang Hsueh-Liang, commander of the Northern Chinese armies.

His defection proved to the Chinese that they apparently could

Expect Thousand At Community Banquet

From noon Wednesday until noon today saw a grand rush for tickets for the Community Fathers and Sons Banquet tonight in the Cath-tickets in the agencies designated, were exhausted and members of the Phalanx, in charge of ticket distrimore tickets. The success of to-standpoint of the crowd.

Because of the necessity of tak-

DECISION IN GAS RATE COMPLAINT OF BOROUGH MADE BY COMMISSION

In an order handed down Wednesday afternoon, the Pennsylvania Public Service Commission dismisses the complaint of the boroughs of Grove City, Sandy Lake, Stone-boro, New Wilmington and Volant against the Union Heat & Light company, and the service charge of 60 cents per meter plus a charge of 65 cents per thousand feet of gas is held to be reasonable.

The decision of the commission comes as a surprise to this section as it was felt that the service charge at least would be knocked off. This company serves New Wilmington and the residents of the Wilmington road in Lawrence county.
The fight against the company has been going on since September 21, 1931. The boroughs mentioned were represented by Attorney M. B.
Kilgusmith, borough solicitor of Grove City, and with him was associated Hon. William McElwaine, Jr. of New Wilmington. In the fight it became necessary to show certain costs and replacement values and Roy Hueselman of Cleveland, an expert in utility procedure and findings, was hired by the complainants.

Costly Litigation.
The cost of the complaint will probably exceed $75,000, it is felt.
The boroughs involved spent upwards of $30,000 and the company itself spent probably more.

The chief differences between the complainants and the company were the extent of accrued depreciation,
value of gas lands and leaseholds,
cost of financing, going concern
value and working capital.

After going into the various items of differences, the commission dismisses the complaint in the following language:
"In view of the above, the commission is of the opinion and finds that it is not necessary for the purpose of these proceedings for it to make a specific finding as to the fair value of respondent's property, and finds further that its rates under attack have not been shown to be excessive or unreasonable.

"Complainants object to the company's monthly service charge of 60 cents per meter and suggest that the entire revenue be derived from

New Menace For Mayor Cermak

(International News Service)
MIAMI, Fla., Mar. 2.—Mayor Anton J. Cermak dozed fitfully in the newly-installed oxygen chamber today while physicians attempted to stem an attack on hiccoughs which was termed "a real menace."

Oxygen pumped into the roomy chamber in which the mayors bed rests has "somewhat alleviated" Cermak's difficulty in breathing the specialists announced. Although the pneumonia in his right lung is practically cleared up, Dr. J. W. Snyder called attention to the continued presence of colitis.
"He is very weak," said Dr. Snyder.
"The colitis is not so severe, but it still prevails. It has sapped his strength. The development of hic-coughing adds to our worries."

Walsh One Of First Choices For Cabinet

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Mar. 2.—Senator Thomas J. Walsh, attorney general designate, was named to the cabinet by President-elect Franklin D.
Roosevelt on Feb. 28 and accepted the appointment im-

incoming executive's first choices for a cabinet post and his acceptance gave Mr.
Roosevelt great satisfaction.

LATE SENATOR WALSH AND WIDOW

This picture of Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana and his bride, the former Senora Mina Perez Chaumont de Truffin, daughter of a prominent Cuban family, was made at Havana immediately following the ceremony a few days ago. The couple left at once for Washington, but Senator Walsh was fatally stricken on the train en route last night.

ROCKY MOUNT, N. C., Mar. 2.—
Senator Walsh died in my arms.
His heart beat feebly under my fingers and died away and I knew life had left him.

Dr. Costello came into the compartment, examined the Senator and shook his head. Mrs. Walsh, still clad in her negligee as she awakened, was hysterical. She kept sobbing a phrase over and over. It was in Spanish and I couldn't understand it.

George, the porter, came to me
several cars away from the Senator's compartment at 6:45. His face was terrible.

"Boss, something's wrong with the Senator," the porter said.
I hurried to the compartment.
The Senator lay on his face on the floor in his night dress, crumpled up. Mrs. Walsh was standing there weeping.

Then I stopped and lifted the Senator and felt his pulse. He was unconscious and didn't appear to be suffering.

His heart beat two or three times and I thought we were in time.
Then it fluttered and stopped. The porter brought in Dr. Costello and he said the Senator was dead.

We were just outside of Wilson and I had the train stopped there I sent Flagman Templeman to get a doctor to take care of Mrs. Walsh.
I brought Dr. M. A. Pittman to the train and he administered a sedative to Mrs. Walsh to quiet her nerves. Dr. Pittman stayed on the train and went on with us to Rocky Mount, 18 miles away, where the body was taken to a mortuary and
Mrs. Walsh, accompanied by Dr.
Pittman, was taken to the Rick's hotel.

BRIDE PROSTRATED BY SUDDEN DEATH

Senator Had Been Named As Attorney General In New Cabinet

(International News Service)
ROCKY MOUNT, N. C.,
Mar. 2.—Senator Thomas J.
Walsh of Montana, attorney general designate, died in the arms of Herbert Weath-ersbee, Atlantic coast line conductor, between 7 and 7:10 a. m. today as the train sped northward toward the nation's capital.

Weathersbee was called to the senator's compartment by a frantic porter, who said he found the senator "dying or dead" shortly before 7 a.
m. Weathersbee said he found Mrs. Walsh hysterical.
"I felt his pulse, and it grew weaker and weaker in my hand," said Weathersbee.

Pronounced Dead.
"Finally, it stopped. I searched the train for a physician, and found
Dr. Costello of Cambridge, Mass.
When he came, he pronounced the senator dead."

Mrs. Walsh told hysterically of finding her husband in a semiconscious state when she awakened about 6:30 a. m.

He regained consciousness temporarily, however, and complained of being "very sick." Mrs. Walsh got him some water, called the porter who called Weathersbee.

The body was taken off the train at the first stop, here, and removed immediately to the Bulluck Funeral Home. Railway officials arranged to place the body aboard a train arriving in the national capital at 10:45 tonight.

Only Mrs. Walsh, her Cuban maid, and railway officials made up the sad little party that got off the train here. The body was immediately taken to the funeral home, and Mrs.
Walsh was taken to a local hotel.

Dr. M. A. Pittman of Wilson, N.
C., was called and found the widow in an hysterical state. He gave her sedatives, but at 9:45 a. m., said she was "in pretty bad shape."

at the sudden death of Thomas J.
Walsh, who was to have been his deep grief over the loss of an old friend and counselor.

"The death of Senator Walsh is a grievous loss not only to the whole prominent a part, but in deep measure to myself personally," said the president-elect.

"He was one of my oldest and

NEW YORK, Mar. 2.—Franklin Delano Roosevelt packed the last of his personal belongings today in preparation for departure for Washington and the supreme moment in any American's career—inauguration as president of the United States.

This afternoon, the president-elect entrains for Washington with his wife and family—and a number of his closest political advisors—for the national capital. On Saturday, shortly after noon, he will take the reins of national office over from President Herbert Hoover.

Holds Conferences
Today, Mr. Roosevelt held a number of last minute conferences at his 65th street residence with members of his new cabinet, including William H. Woodin, who is to be secretary of the treasury, and James A.
Farley, next postmaster-general.
All of the "governor's" family will be aboard the special train this afternoon except his daughter Mrs.
Anna Curtis Dall. She, her husband and their two small children went ahead.

Those in the last two cars of the special will include Mrs. F. D.
Roosevelt, Mrs. James Roosevelt, the president-elect's mother. On the foursons, James, Elliott, John and Franklin and the wives of James and Elliott.

KLINE TO BATTLE TO ESCAPE JAIL

Pittsburgh Mayor Presents Appeal

Hopes State Supreme Court Will Act To Alter Sentence

STATUS AS MAYOR NOW IN QUESTION

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, Mar. 2.—Grimly determined to avert the ignominy of a jail term, Mayor Charles H. Kline, of Pittsburgh, convicted on a single count of irregularity in the purchase of city supplies and sentenced to six months in jail, turned to the state supreme court for relief today.

And standing behind him and any possible relief from the high court, the mayor found two outstanding figures.

One was District Attorney Andrew T. Park who declared he would move to have the appeal remitted to the superior court because of the long delay necessitated by decision on a supreme court appeal. The other was Attorney W. D. Stewart, counsel for the citizens committee and a special prosecutor assisting Park, who likewise declared in favor of submitting the appeal to the superior court.

"That's where it belongs," was Stewart's terse comment on the mayor's appeal to the high court.

Hold Up Warrants. In addition to the jail term, the mayor also was sentenced to pay a fine of $5,000. A co-defendant, Bertram L. Supcop, deposed director of supplies, is now serving a one-year jail term here.

A side angle of the long litigation was the announcement by City Controller James P. Kerr that no warrants would be issued bearing the mayor's name until the city law department determined what effect the mayor's sentence would have on his right to sign further warrants.

In addition to holding up payment of all city bills, the controller's announcement resulted in withholding two-weeks pay checks of more than 1,000 city employees.

As it was in the back part of the building when first seen, it is believed to have originated from the stove, possibly from an explosion of gas collected over the recently covered fire. Mr. Gatto had conducted the store for six or seven years.

Hillsville's water supply, which enabled the volunteers to avert a serious conflagration, is furnished by the Johnson limestone quarries, several fire plugs being located in the town.

MRS. T. W. PHILLIPS PASSES AWAY AT HOME EARLY TODAY

the city or county but knew Mrs. Phillips either personally or by reputation. For more than half a century she had been an outstanding figure in the work of the church and of those agencies affiliated with the church. Despite the passing of years she continued her interest in such things and her passing is marked by genuine sorrow in the city where she spent an honorable, useful life.

Born in Petersburg, O.

The late Mrs. Phillips was born in Petersburg, Ohio, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Hardman, on October 31, 1844. Her first visit to New Castle was made on one of the old canal boats running between Lowellville and New Castle, coming here to visit her sister, Clarinda, who was the first wife of the late Thomas W. Phillips, Sr. Some time after the death of her sister she was married to Mr. Phillips.

In the early days of their married life the discovery of oil in Pennsylvania marked the beginning of a new industry and Mrs. Phillips was among the pioneers in the industry. His early struggles were crowned with success and many years before his death he was a figure in the oil and gas world. For a number of years he served his district in Congress. He preceded his wife in death by 21 years, passing away on July 21, 1912.

Charter Church Member

When the First Christian church was organized more than three quarters of a century ago Mrs. Phillips was a charter member and at the time of her death was the oldest living charter member of the church. Her membership was a living thing to her. Not only did she devote large sums of money to the advancement of the church and its work but as long as she was physically able she took an active part in the Sunday school and the church work.

Her husband had been an elder of the church from the time of its organization until his death and at his death Mrs. Phillips took his place serving until her death. She was also a member of the Official Board of the church and for the past four years had been an associate superintendent of the Sunday school, devoting time each Sunday morning to an exposition of the lesson.

State President

For more than thirty years she was state president of the Christian Women's Board of Missions, relinquishing this office when the organization merged with other similar organizations of the church. In the financial work of the church she served as chairman of the Committee on Finance. The Phillips Circle, an organized group of younger women of the First Christian church was named in her honor.

Outside the church she was active in organizations that were based upon Christian principles. For many years she served the Young Women's Christian Association as its director and gave of her time and money. She was interested in the work of the Young Men's Christian Association also and contributed to this work.

Her great heart went out to the underprivileged children and one of the Christian projects in which she interested herself was the Soloto Street Mission. In civic affairs she was equally active and for many years was the president of the Reading Circle and a member of the Art Club.

Cold type and printers' ink can hardly be expected to do justice to the life of this outstanding woman. She knew the ruggedness of the pioneer's life and the responsibilities of a citizen of wide influence. She accepted those responsibilities unshirked any task which had for its aim the betterment of the city in which she lived or the lives of the citizens of that city.

Was Philanthropic

Her philanthropic did not stop with the boundaries of her city or state. Foreign missions have felt the beneficence of her philanthropy, struggling churches in other cities have been heartened by her helping hand, and educational institutions have been able to carry the light of culture higher, because of her.

The years dealt kindly with her and it seemed that as she grew older physically there was a compensating mellowness added to her soul. The needy never cried but she answered, the oppressed found in her a champion and a friend. New Castle has lost one of its most valuable citizens in the passing of Mrs. Phillips.

She is survived by two sons, Thomas W. Phillips, Jr., and B. D. Phillips, both of Butler, and a daughter, Mrs. Grace Phillips Johnson of New Castle. In addition there are 17 grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren surviving her.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon, March 4, at 2:30 o'clock from the residence of her niece, Mrs. Grace Skelton, 1410 Highland avenue. Interment will be made in the Lowellville cemetery.

Other commanders on the Eastern front following General Sun's action by deserting. Some of them put up considerable resistance, while others capitulated as the well-organized Japanese and Manchukuo military machine thundered across the province.

The northern military council headed by Marshal Chang Hsueh-Liang immediately embarked upon the perfection of plans for an orderly retreat and repatriation of Chang's own troops south of the Great Wall.

With Chihfeng and Lingyuan already in Japanese hands and the fall of Jehol City, the capital, seemingly only a matter of hours, the Chinese were interested solely in preserving the remnants of their armies from extinction.

Volunteer troops are being moved westward into Chahar with all possible speed. Utmost precautions are being taken to prevent these irregular, more or less undisciplined troops from filtering south of the Great Wall into China proper.

It was thought likely that sporadic fighting would continue to cover the withdrawal of troops through Pinghuang and Jehol City, but Chinese officials admitted that any further concentrated resistance to the Japanese advance was out of the question.

Tokyo, Mar. 2.—Chinese military leaders at Peiping were reported panic-stricken today as the Japanese-Manchukuo war machine rolled steadily toward Jehol City following capture of Chih-Feng and Lingyuan.

Crushing of the Chinese defense line, it was said, has broken the defenders' fighting spirit.

On account of the narrow streets in Japanese cities, the small three-wheeled motor car is very popular.

Deaths of the Day

Frank Silas. Frank Silas, age 60 years, died at his residence in Wampum Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock after a short illness. He had been a resident of the community for sixteen years.

Funeral services will be held Saturday, March 4, at 11 a. m. in the Greenville cemetery at Greenville and interment will be made there. Dr. Norris A. White of the First Methodist church will officiate.

Interment will be made in Shenango Valley cemetery, at Greenville, Pa.

SADNESS CAST OVER CAPITAL

Almost without exception his selection had been acclaimed as an ideal one, for his legal attainments were nationally known.

His senatorial colleagues vied with each other in expressing their regret at his passing, for he was genuinely popular in the senate and profoundly respected by officials of the outgoing administration.

President Hoover was shocked at the death of Senator Walsh, and immediately sent a message of condolence to the widow.

EXPEVT THOUSAND AT COMMUNITY BANQUET

ber of tickets sold at noon today will be the number of men and boys at the banquet tonight, and every ticketholder is asked to either be present or send some one in his place.

The program tonight is long enough to cover the subject and short enough to be interesting. The chief speaker will be Prof. L. H. Beeler of Grove City College, a speaker of ability and force. The chairman of the evening will be Dr. G. S. Bennett, pastor of the First Christian church, and the toastmaster will be Louis B. Round.

The address of welcome to the boys will be delivered by Bart Richards and the response will be delivered by Heber Baldwin. The Senior High School orchestra will have a group of musicians present to liven things up, and W. O. "Red" Williams will direct the pep singing, with Paul A. Welsh singing several solos, accompanied by his wife. Two instrumentalists from Sharon will also be on the program and the "Baker Boy", the chap who grows before your eyes will demonstrate his startling ability.

Tuesday night the committee estimated the crowd would be 500. Wednesday at noon they raised their guess to 700 and today they feel certain that close to 1000 will be present. In the past two days the idea has attracted the attention it deserves and ticket sales have been clicking along like a well oiled machine.

Tonight's dinner is the first of what is expected to be a series of annual Community Fathers and Sons banquets. The idea originated with the Boys Work movement in the Y. M. C. A. and has been adopted over the country in the past few years. Tonight New Castle experiments with the idea of one large dinner instead of a group of individual church Fathers and Sons dinners. The dinner tonight starts at 6:30 and the committee has announced that it will start on time.

MEMBER DESIGNATE OF THE NEW CABINET DIES SUDDENLY ON TRAIN

Thomas J. Walsh of Montana, attorney general designate in the new Roosevelt cabinet, died suddenly this morning aboard an Atlantic Coast Line train while he was enroute to Washington to assume his cabinet position.

With him at the time was his bride of a few days, the former Senora Mina Maria Nieves Truffin, whom he married in Havana only last Saturday.

Senator Walsh died apparently of a heart attack, according to Dr. M. A. Pittman, of Wilson, who was called to the train by members of the crew.

Mrs. Walsh's cries for aid gave first indication of the tragedy at 7:15 a. m. just before the train pulled into Wilson. The train was halted and messengers dispatched for Dr. Pittman.

Mrs. Walsh was the widow of a wealthy Cuban banker and sugar planter at the time of their marriage last week. The marriage was unexpected, as was a surprise to both Havana and Washington. The senator quietly flew from Washington to Miami and from Miami to Havana, and was married in the American embassy.

Send Body To Washington.

Rocky Mount, N. C., Mar. 2.—The body of Senator Thomas J. Walsh, of Montana, who died of a heart attack aboard his honeymoon train, enroute to Washington early today will be taken to the nation's capital at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Mrs. Walsh, her personal maid, and Dr. M. A. Pittman, of Wilson, N. C., who was summoned to the train when the attorney general designate was found unconscious and dying on the floor of his compartment by his bride of several days, will accompany the body.

Funeral arrangements were not announced here.

Soft Dirt Cause Of Truck Accident

C. J. Anderson, Rigby, today explained the accident in which his truck was concerned along Savannah road Wednesday.

He said the road, improved recently, is narrow and the shoulder or dirt section to the side, was soft yesterday.

Mr. Anderson said he pulled his truck to the side of the road to let another automobile go by.

In pulling to the side his truck struck the soft shoulder and this was the reason why the accident occurred.

The truck was damaged considerably. Mr. Anderson was uninjured though the truck went down a two and one foot embankment.

TWO MAYOR'S RELIEF EMPLOYEES INJURED

Two employees of the Mayor's Committee on Relief have suffered slight injuries recently according to the city legal department. The men are Howard Widel and Jas. Rhodes. Widel received an injury to his back at Gaston park and Rhodes sustained a lacerated finger at Ray street quarry.

Very Painful Rash over Face, Hands and Feet. Cuticura Healed.

"I suffered eight months with acute skin trouble. I had itching all over my body day and night and a rash broke out all over my face, hands and feet. It was very painful and I could not stand much clothing. My face was badly disfigured. I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and then bought more. I only used one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment and I was healed." (Signed) Willis J. Jones, 2030 Race St., Phila., Pa., Sept. 28, 1932.

Soap 25c. Ointment 25c and 50c. Talcum 25c. Sold everywhere. One sample each free. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. H, Malden, Mass."

ROOSEVELT'S PROBLEMS MANY

GOVERNOR ROOSEVELT, when greeted with the cry of "radical" during the campaign, countered with the statement that he did not intend to try to make any changes in the fundamental principles of our government, but would seek to correct the bad economic conditions.

Throughout the campaign, however, he was supported by the so-called liberal bloc in both the Democratic and Republican parties, as well as the conservative Democratic leaders. Now that the waiting period following the election is about over, and the new administration is ready to take office, a great many people are wondering just how the new President will solidify or satisfy the various, usually discordant elements, which brought about his election.

A great many people have predicted that he would abandon the progressives and lean toward the conservatives, while others have been as confident that he would favor the progressives to the discomfort of the conservatives. Sooner or later, it was said, the new President would have to choose one of two paths.

The cabinet selections, however, indicate that Mr. Roosevelt will continue the middle of the road policy he adopted during the campaign. The cabinet includes the names of progressives, conservatives, and so-called Republican allies. The names are well distributed geographically. Only one fact is evident and that is that Mr. Roosevelt intends having none but old and tried friends around him. Each cabinet member will be not only a Roosevelt supporter, but one who was "for" Roosevelt before the nomination.

Mr. Roosevelt is seeking to do what every President tries to do and that is to keep in line all of the classes and factions which supported him. Whether he will be successful remains to be seen. If he can do so he will prove himself a greater politician than any who has gone before. Usually there comes a time when the leader of any party made up of conflicting interests must choose one horn of the political dilemma. There are several dilemmas in the offing. Some of Mr. Roosevelt's party are for currency inflation and others against it. Some are for one form of farm relief and others for another. Some are for free trade and others for protection. Some are for making concessions on the foreign debt and some are not. Some favor recognition of Soviet Russia and others are violently opposed to such a step.

But Mr. Roosevelt is an optimist and he is going to try to keep all the boys for him as long as possible. That is, of course, the politic and the human thing to do. Just how long it can be done remains to be seen.

CONTINUING HOOVER'S FOREIGN POLICY

The past week has evidenced the fact that the new president will, in a large measure, follow the foreign policy of the outgoing administration. Reference has already been made to the fact that the present secretary of state, Mr. Stimson, has been in close contact with the president-elect and is acting as the liaison between the outgoing and incoming administrations.

Norman E. Davis, who has been the official observer for the foreign department, has been retained by Roosevelt and will represent the government at the coming economic conference in London.

This means that there will be a continuance of the policy which has been in effect for some years although it is possible that there will be a revision of the methods as to the accomplishment of certain things to meet the changing conditions.

IT WORKS WELL IN ITALY: WHY NOT IN OUR COUNTRY?

An American newspaperman, arriving in Italy, made an experiment to test the working of the Italian system of checking up on alien visitors. Alighting from his train in Rome he checked his hand baggage at the station and wandered off in the city without going to a hotel to register. In twenty minutes he was under arrest and was accounting for himself at the police station. He had learned what he wanted to know. The Italian system of keeping track of foreigners does work.

Had this American on arriving in Rome, gone to a hotel and registered he would not have made the acquaintance of the Italian police. His registration, which the hotel would have reported immediately to the police bureau, would have met every requirement. The police had made note of him, as well as of all his fellow passengers, when he crossed the border from Switzerland. They knew when his train arrived in Rome. When he did not register anywhere they immediately sent out men to pick him up.

This suggests that if the United States had an adequate system of keeping track on aliens this country would not be full, as it is, of foreigners who have slipped surreptitiously over the border, and would not be, as it is, a happy hunting ground for alien criminals.

In Italy—in all Continental countries for that matter—an alien cannot slip surreptitiously into the country and stay for more than a few hours. He must register somewhere and when he registers he must have a passport. If not, he is in the hands of the police at once.

In Italy—and other Continental countries—it is impossible for the foreigner to dodge anonymously about the country, passing here as Mr. Brown and there as Mr. Jones. The police will want to know at once who this Mr. Jones is who has not appeared elsewhere on their records.

All this puts no hardship at all on the well disposed foreign visitor. His hotel or lodging house host attends to the routine. The tourist can go about Italy with no bother with the police so long as he keeps himself properly located in whatever town he is staying. He will actually have in Europe much more liberty than a citizen has in the United States, but he must always be on the records.

Something like this could be very useful in these United States, where we now foolishly give ourselves little or no chance to know whether aliens are here rightfully or wrongfully or what they are up to.—San Francisco Chronicle.

All Of Us

WHERE ARE THE BIG MEN? DO YOU MISS THE BIG MEN?

I don't.
I mean all those Big Men we used to have—only three or four years ago—in our modern life.
The Geniuses. The Master Minds. The Guiding Spirits of the Age. Some of them were very young. They were compared with Alexander the Great, with William Pitt, the Younger, with all the other young heroes who achieved greatness when young. Some were older. They were called Nestors. Goethes, with all other old men who were still strong and active on the far edge of life.

We read about them, with awe. Sometimes we met them, without quite so much awe. Face to face, they weren't so different from the rest of us. They had two eyes, one nose, and a mouth, and when they talked they didn't sound so marvelous.

But the aura of their magnificence was all around them and it enveloped all who came into their presence. They were Giant Killers. Geniuses. Siegfrieds. Somehow, out of us had been born a new race of demi-gods. You know how a rose or a guinea pig develops a new species? Well, that's how we thought of humanity—only a few years ago. Well, where are they now? Don't ask me, they're not in MY pocket! I haven't seen a Big Man for a long, long time. I wouldn't know one now if I saw him. . . . And I'm glad that species has disappeared from the earth.

But I am not gloating, please take my word for that. I'm merely glad because that Big Man idea was a bad one for the world. As they went up for the remainder of us went down. As they grew in power and strength we shrank into weakness and dependence. They grew big, we grew little.

The jobs of this world must be done by millions of fairly small men, each thinking in the right way, each doing the right way.

A PEACEFUL HOME
A grumbling and complaining wife can do more to upset a husband and unfit him for his daily work than most any other force.

Most men are so troubled in their business life that they consider it the last straw to get home to a nagging, out-of-sorts wife.

Nerves on edge don't need much to jump out of control.

It must be admitted that wives, especially those with young children, have much to disturb them, from their point of view.

But husband must make a living for his dear ones and so domestic troubles are really minor in comparison with those that greet the man outside in his business of supporter of the whole family.

A man marries for peace and comfort at home, far oftener than for any other reason—comfort and companionship is what he craves.

If they do not get it at home, many men are not strong enough in character not to seek it elsewhere, either in games or other society.

When his home is in a turmoil, disorderly and complaints and dissatisfaction greet him at the door, no wonder he becomes belligerent.

Screaming and loud talking—quarrels and spitting and mothers who have not the good sense to manage their children so as to bring peace to a tired husband, are certainly not making rough places smooth for husbands.

YOUTH

If violets in spring you'd grow
This fact about them you should know:

Violets like shady spots and low.

But if you think they ought to run
The hazard of the blazing sun;

Their lives will speedily be done.

Thus if you'd keep the young folks near

Think not too much of yesterday's fear.

Nor hold dead customs now too dear.

The youth we lived lies far away.

Little we did, who now are gray.

Would suit youth's purposes today.

A different age is this they face.

Their feet must dance at swifter pace.

To keep the progress of the race.

As violets dwell in forests deep,

So youth to its own age must keep.

However much the graybeards weep.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 5:52. Sun rises tomorrow 6:32.

The borough of Jackson Center, Mercer county, will not levy any taxes for 1933. With a surplus in the treasury from last year the people up there figure they can get along for another year. What a pity we don't all live in Jackson Center.

That U. S. customs official who turned down a collection of photographs of the late Michelangelo's famous frescoes of the Sistene chapel because he believed them to be obscene, must have been one of those common guys who doesn't have an eye for art.

A great publicist is one who keeps the nation informed about everything including the weather in Florida or California.

There must be some actors, artists and professional men who aren't broke. They aren't writing for the magazines.

The chief fault in these proposed dictators consists in being such small taters.

When the high school and college graduates begin telling us how to save the country this year, they will just sound like ordinary citizens.

It is much easier to understand the nature of a holding company if you visit the office to get your pay check.

We have read of a number of blood transfusions lately that seemed to help the patients. Why not try a little experiment of that kind on Uncle Sam.

People of India are quick to learn America's modern farm methods. Of course they already knew how to sign a mortgage.

They don't all work that way. Tammany's machine makes jobs for 148,000.

It is claimed that the states of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois, Missouri and Texas contain more than one-fourth of all the high schools in the United States. We pay for them too, but it's worth it.

"When a person does anything well, I think he should be given credit for it."

"Not necessarily. I have such a reputation for being a good card player and always winning that I can't get anyone to play with me anymore."

Treasury statisticians who estimate that close to a billion, and a quarter dollars will roll into the Treasury if prohibition is done away with, are taking a lot for granted. There are just lots of perfectly good prospects who haven't drunk any since the law went into effect, and a great many have also died.

Multimillionaires, quizzed by the Senate banking committee, complain with bitterness of Senator James Couzens's phraseology, particularly to "suckers," the "foisting" of securities, the public's "gullibility" and "rakeoff." Yes Sir, when a man gets a few dollars, he objects to being called names and has shady references made to him.

Barbers seem to be unanimous that business will pick up after March 4. In the meantime, they will just keep shaving away, we presume.

There are a lot of people who have "mean moods" occasionally when they are disposed to be grouchy and grumbly. We heard an east side woman say the other day that when she feels one of these moods coming on she just goes out for a walk, and don't stop until it wears off. Not a bad plan to try, if you are one of the persons afflicted that way.

You can tell the girls who still have hope. They believe in patronizing the hair dresser.

AMERICANISM—Big ones urging little ones to buy American goods; same big ones giving 60 per cent. of freight and 90 per cent. of passenger business to foreign ships.

A news item claims that our woodpulp supply will soon be exhausted unless we get our heads together. Well, that should make a lot more, if we can get enough heads.

Influenced, perhaps, by the present general mess, churchmen are about to agree that matches aren't made in Heaven, and we are just wondering—

It is claimed that the Greek girls used to love to sit and listen to the lyre, and we have noticed that lots of American flappers have a falling along that line also.

Here's hoping the new Secretary of the Treasury won't live up to his name, or "wooden nickels" may become a reality. Wooden that jar you.

In some of the big cities they are placing placards in vacant store-rooms which read, "Ideal place for a saloon," they're stealing the thunder of the farmer who points out to prospective buyers what a grand place he has for a gas station.

From the amount of damages being asked in some alienation suits we have heard of being filed lately, it don't look as though there has been any depreciation in the value of affections.

A fond mother in Milwaukee has christened her son Anton Cermak Franklin Delano Roosevelt. Chances are that when he grows up this fellow will call him just plain "Tony."

Some men are naturally silly, while others never have an opportunity to get around a pretty girl.

Jimmy Walker, who always prided himself on being a little late for his appointments, could probably be on time now, if he had any place in particular to go.

Under a new plan of rent adjustment in many of our larger cities store-rooms are being leased on a percentage basis. Not a bad idea. Many business men fall because of dwindling trade and fixed overhead. This plan is an advantage to both landlord and tenant, keeps the tenant from going in the red and the landlord from the poor-house.

Police Commissioner John S. Giles of Reading says that women can wear trousers on the streets of Reading if they want to. Mr. Giles seems to be taking the easy way out. If the women want to wear pants, no mere police commissioner is going to prevent them.

Applications for marriage licenses rose fifty per cent in Wayne county, Michigan, during the recent bank holiday. The bridegrooms were probably released on their promise to pay.

A Chicago judge let a newly-married man go, charged with putting a lead slug in a telephone box, when the man stated that his wife made him call her up every day. The judge probably was married longer than a few months, himself.

Knocking is generally caused by one of two things. It is either carbon, or envy.

Times are better in some ways. Parents no longer buy underwear big enough to allow for three years growth.

AMBROSE COMES BACK
Mr. Fred L. Renz, President, The News Company.

In your issue of Tuesday, February 28, your Coal-town correspondent Joe Bugarl breaks out with another pseudo-literary effusion in which he disparages certain statements made by me, misspells my name, impugns my sincerity of purpose, and by innuendo, indirection, and inference, would have your patient readers believe that he is the last word concerning Muscle Shoals, and other governmental projects.

In his blunt, coarse manner he touches upon some light references I made to his illiterate manner of expressing himself. There was no offense meant of course, I was merely pointing to the obvious, and after a fashion, handing a fellow a bouquet for his accomplishment, stilted though it may have been. Casting pearls before swine if you please.

His reference to my graduation from Vassar is ridiculous, it is almost mortifying I might say. Anybody knows that Vassar is not a male school, it is a business college in the middle west. I did not graduate from Vassar, Mister Renz, and I would suggest that your Joe Bugarl acquaint himself with the institutions of higher learning in this country.

His further statements in his letter are not germane to anything I might have said. They indicate a vivid mind, and more than a suspicion of arrested development. For me to engage in an unseemly verbal brawl with the fellow is not my purpose and I take it would not be dignified enough for your widely read columns.

What does Pluto say of such people? What does Aristophanes say, or Aristotle or H. G. Wells? You know what they say Mister Renz. Need I say anything further?

Sincerely,
AMBROSE J. FIDDLEBOTTOM.

Corbett As Prize Ring Figure Is Ranked Among Immortals

"Gentleman Jim" Credited With Raising Pugilism To Respectable Sport And With Introduction Of Science As Boxing Feature

Death of "Gentleman Jim" Corbett, once world champion fighter, serves to remind the country of his great service in putting the sport on a plane much higher than it had previously attained. His personal ideals are recalled and he is ranked among the immortals in the world of sport.

"Destiny made him the one who, in the opinion of many, started fistiana on the way to comparative respect and respectability," says the NEWARK EVENING NEWS, an opinion which is echoed in the TRIBUNE, the NEW YORK HERALD, the ROCK ISLAND ARGUS and the SCRANTON TIMES. That he is entitled to a place among the immortals is attested by the BALTIMORE SUN, the ROCKFORD REGISTER-REPUBLIC and the BIRMINGHAM AGE-HERALD.

POLIS STAR offers the estimate: "Perhaps the fact that prize fighting was then an outlawed sport tends to vest recollections of it with the notion that it had a rough grandeur and virility of which the fighting of these later days is feeble imitation. At any rate, the later heroes of pugilism never seemed to loom up as so important as Sullivan and Corbett. Somehow each of these men, so different in physical makeup and character, kept the kind of regard that goes to an unbeatable champion long after Corbett demonstrated his unquestionable superiority over Sullivan in the ring and Corbett in his turn was beaten."

"He introduced to this country the science of boxing as more effective than hard-fisted slugging," avers the ROANOKE WORLD-NEWS, while the CHARLESTON (S. C.) EVENING POST calls him "a scientific fighter and good sportsman." The AKRON BEACON JOURNAL declares that "with his victory over John L. Sullivan, he inaugurated the greatest era in the ring's history," and that "he died leaving a name that will be a legend so long as excellence in athletics is esteemed by men." The CLEVELAND NEWS recalls that "before he became the world's heavyweight champion, boxing was not a 'manly art' but was merely a test of brute strength." The DANBURY NEWS-TIMES feels that he "made boxing an almost polite recreation," and the HAVERHILL GAZETTE recalls that "he became a tradition—a pleasing tradition, rightly regarded with respect and admiration, because he possessed to a high degree the qualities that won him the name of 'Gentleman Jim.'" The APPLETON POST-CRESCENT avers that "he was an influential figure in the cleansing of public opinion and the ultimate liberalization of the laws to serve and develop a great sport."

"He was a credit to the manly art," in the opinion of the WASHINGTON EVENING STAR, which comments on his methods: "He demonstrated that pugilism was not mere slugging. He became the most 'scientific' gladiator the Queensberry rules had ever known. When Sullivan at New Orleans essayed the tactics with which the brawny Boston bruiser had mowed down every other man who ever faced him, John L. found they were useless against a younger foe who used his brains and his feet, as well as his fists."

"He was rich in resources of skill and character," states the OREGON BLADE. "There are no substitutes for these qualifications in any important occupation. A student of anatomy and psychology, he knew his business and knew his public. He learned to conserve and make the most of his physical assets. He found out also when and where to reach the most vulnerable parts of his opponent's armor. He had sufficient intelligence also to perceive that clean sport is ultimately more profitable than reducing it to a virtual racket for quick gain."

"He was one of the finest specimens of physical manhood in the world," records the YAKIMA DAILY REPUBLICAN, and the HAMILTON JOURNAL says: "He had become to a certain extent, the ideal of American youth. To his credit he sought ever to live up to this ideal, with a clean life." The ABILENE REPORTER describes him as "an artist who combined brains with incredible swift muscular co-ordination," and the ESCANABA DAILY PRESS comments: "This generation should not overlook the fact that it owes a debt to Mr. Corbett and many another manly and chivalrous figure willing to endure months of gruelling training and any amount of merciless pounding, to appease that natural craving found to some extent in every healthy man, the assertion of physical supremacy."

"He was 'Gentleman Jim,'" remarks the FORT WORTH STAR-TELEGRAM. "The appellation remained because its owner didn't lose it with the championship. The gentleman a man is lives through life with him and is remarked at the obsequies held at the passing of fame. Being a gentleman is merely another virtue that is its own reward." The PORTLAND OREGON JOURNAL honors him as "a great man—great for the mighty reforms he brought into the boxing game," and describes him as "refined, smiling and delightfully sociable," possessing "the grace and graciousness of a dancing master, and the style and methods of a diplomat." The SPRINGFIELD (MASS.) REPUBLICAN recalls that he "could punch the bag so artistically as to remind one of Paderewski fingering the keyboard of a piano." The CINCINNATI TIMES-STAR, calling him "the first gentleman of the ring," adds that "those who have seen him in action or engaged him in conversation know that he was a good deal of a man." The DES MOINES TRIBUNE emphasizes "the tremendous importance of his mental side," and his "incredible speed and grace" in the ring are admired by the ROANOKE TIMES. "His clean living and decent conduct" are praised by the YOUNGSTOWN VINDICATOR, his position as one who was "high minded, intelligent and well versed in basic knowledge" by the CHARLOTTE OBSERVER, and the SCHENECTADY GAZETTE comments: "May we have in public and private life more men of the type of 'Gentleman Jim.'"

"He was one of the most glamorous figures in the history of American sports," according to the GOSHEN NEWS-TIMES, and the ALTOONA MIRROR concludes: "He was regarded as a versatile man, one who could have made his mark in almost any avenue of endeavor for which he was physically and mentally fitted."

Many Are Using Books During Idle Time To Better Themselves

YEAR'S ACTIVITIES REVIEWED IN BRIEF

At the annual meeting of the Free Public Library board, the year's activities in brief were reviewed by Miss Alice Sterling, librarian, in her report.

With the prevalent unemployment, additional duties have been laid on the staff of the library. Miss Sterling pointed out. Recreational reading must be supplied to larger numbers of people than in normal times; cultural reading for vocational and practical use must be provided for those who are using their enforced leisure for study, many of whom are availing themselves of the books at the library in the hope of bettering themselves when the economic inclemency is over.

These additional duties, the library staff has attempted to perform and the measure of their success is indicated by the increase in circulation, a gain of 15 per cent over the preceding year, 50 per cent over 1930 and 74 percent over 1929. The story hour conducted by Miss Alice Joyce, children's librarian attracted 1,698 children during the year. Two displays were presented through the courtesy of Miss Cassandra Aiken, at 118 North Mill street. Preceding Book week, another display of books for youth was held at the main library for high school boys and girls.

A training class consisting of Florence Golder, Grace Thompson, and Jane Leitch, was conducted for six weeks during the summer.

The trustees of the New Castle Free Public Library are: Wylie McCaslin, president; Mrs. Clara S. Royce, secretary; Clarence A. Patterson, treasurer; Mrs. J. Lee McFate, Guy J. Wadlinger, and William J. Caldwell.

The library staff is composed of Miss Alice Sterling, librarian; Rose M. Barber, reference librarian; Margaret A. Smith, cataloger; Alice B. Joyce, children's librarian; Mrs. Gladys Johnston, branches. The assistants are Frances Geddes, Gladys Gray, Mrs. Mildred Gardner, Mrs. Edith Allen, Florence Paul, and the pages, William Lewis, William Leitch, Robert McClung, Glenn McClurg, and Norman Wadlinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson of King avenue have received word from the Ohio medical board that their daughter Margaret has successfully passed the state examination in nursing which was given in December at Columbus, O. Miss Johnson was graduated from the Union high school in June, 1929, after which she took up a three-year course in nursing at St. Elizabeth's hospital, Youngstown, O. She was graduated from the John Carroll university at Cleveland, O., in June, 1932.

LOCAL MOTORIST LOSES LICENSE

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Mar. 2.—During the week ending February 21, noon, the bureau of highway patrol and safety withdrew the cards of 124 drivers. Of this number 73 were revoked and 51 suspended. Withdrawals were 37 more than the preceding week. Operating privileges were restored to 124. Revocations this year to date total 434 and suspensions 634.

Motorists whose driving privileges were revoked included Wallace Janel, West Ralph street, New Castle. John W. Allen, R. F. D. 2, New Castle, had his license restored.

Kiwanians Prolong Luncheon To Hear Depression Cures

Extra 30-Minute Session Holds Members As Westminster Man Speaks

That New Castle Kiwanians, like everyone else are anxious to put the skids under Old Man Depression, was made evident Wednesday afternoon as they sat for 30 minutes overtime to hear Prof. C. W. McKee, Westminster College economics professor in academic fashion, relate the evils and possible cures for America's financial troubles.

"The Inflation of Currency," was the theme the Westminster faculty man followed. He cited briefly a multitude of current price problems, including gold, silver, bank paper, bank credit, commercial credit, velocity, the bank of International Settlements, managed currency, security methods of business finance, substitution of metal and paper money for bank money and the international debt settlements.

Prof. McKee devoted his prepared remarks to the most crucial points, but in the extra half hour's open forum he covered a wide range of less perplexing financial difficulties.

As a key point the professor spoke of public psychology. That, he declared, is a positive factor in solving the prevailing problems. He termed public confidence one of the most influential in the fight to restore the country to the normal it hopes for.

H. R. Patton, business manager of Westminster, accompanied Prof. McKee to the city, and former Mayor W. H. Gillespie, Tad E. Shields, Dr. Norris White and C. L. Shira, this city, attended as guests. A new member introduced was John Kaylor, new manager of a local store.

President Norman E. Clark presided over the program while Attorney Gilbert E. Long, chairman of the program committee, introduced the speaker.

Welfare Conference Planned On March 9

Will Be Held In The First Christian Church With Many Prominent Speakers

A welfare conference under the supervision of the Department of Public Welfare of the Lawrence County Federation of Women's clubs in conjunction with the Public Charities Association of Pennsylvania for the consideration of many present day welfare problems will be held Thursday, March 9, in the First Christian church. It will open with a luncheon at 12 o'clock noon and continue throughout the afternoon.

Mrs. Roy Long is general chairman of the local committee, while Dr. H. A. Waldkoenig, will represent the Public Charities Association. Mrs. Long will preside at the luncheon and Dr. Mildred Rogers and Dr. Waldkoenig will be the luncheon speakers.

There will be three discussion groups during the afternoon from 2 to 4 p. m. one on Unemployment Relief with Mrs. Nettie G. Matheny member of the Lawrence County Emergency Relief Board and James K. Love, head of the Mayor's Relief Committee presiding and Dr. Waldkoenig as the leader; one on Child Welfare Problems, with Dr. Mary J. Baker presiding and Miss Margaret M. Swigard, State Department of Welfare, Harrisburg as leaders and a third on Juvenile Delinquency and Juvenile Courts with Mayor Charles B. Mayne presiding and Curtis A. Williams, Pennsylvania Committee on Penal Affairs of the Public Charities Association as speakers.

Public welfare organizations, service clubs and the public in general have been invited to participate in this most interesting affair.

To Check Relief Rolls To Learn If Poor Run Cars

County Welfare Officer M. B. Hogue will grant no aid to applicants for relief who have received 1933 license plates for their automobiles, it was made plain by him today.

While it has always been a policy of the department to eliminate from the relief rolls, anyone who owns and drives a car, reports indicate that in cases the rule is being violated.

During the past year Mr. Hogue called in all 1932 plates from persons who desired help, but with the coming of the new year a new problem arose. Where violations of the department policy are found, a penalty may be imposed.

Director Hogue, speaking of the reports, said: "We intend to make a vigorous check for license plates and where we find cars being driven the relief will immediately stop."

It is the belief of the department that no applicant for aid should ask the county to share the burden of maintaining a car.

Ticket Sale For "Big Drive" Opens

Legion Home Association Will Benefit By Showing Of Actual War Picture

Advance sale of tickets for "The Big Drive" actual war picture, taken from the archives of eight great nations in the World War, opened today.

The picture is backed by all veteran organizations of the city, and the funds derived from the sale of tickets by them will be used in maintaining the Legion Home building. Only the introduction to this picture, showing the historical withdrawal of the American Ambassador from Germany, with a few other features of this nature, were staged. The remainder of the pictures were taken right at the front lines by Signal Corps photographers. When one witnesses scenes of death, they are realities.

War veterans are glad that the opportunity to see an accurate picture of the war is presented as they believe the picture will do much to promote peace.

Tickets are on sale between the hours of 11 a. m. and 9 p. m. at the Leslie Hotel and Woods Building.

New Castle People Will Attend Banquet

Quite a number of New Castle people are planning to go to the Welsh banquet to be held at Fort Pitt Hotel, Saturday evening. These events are attracting people from all parts of Western Pennsylvania.

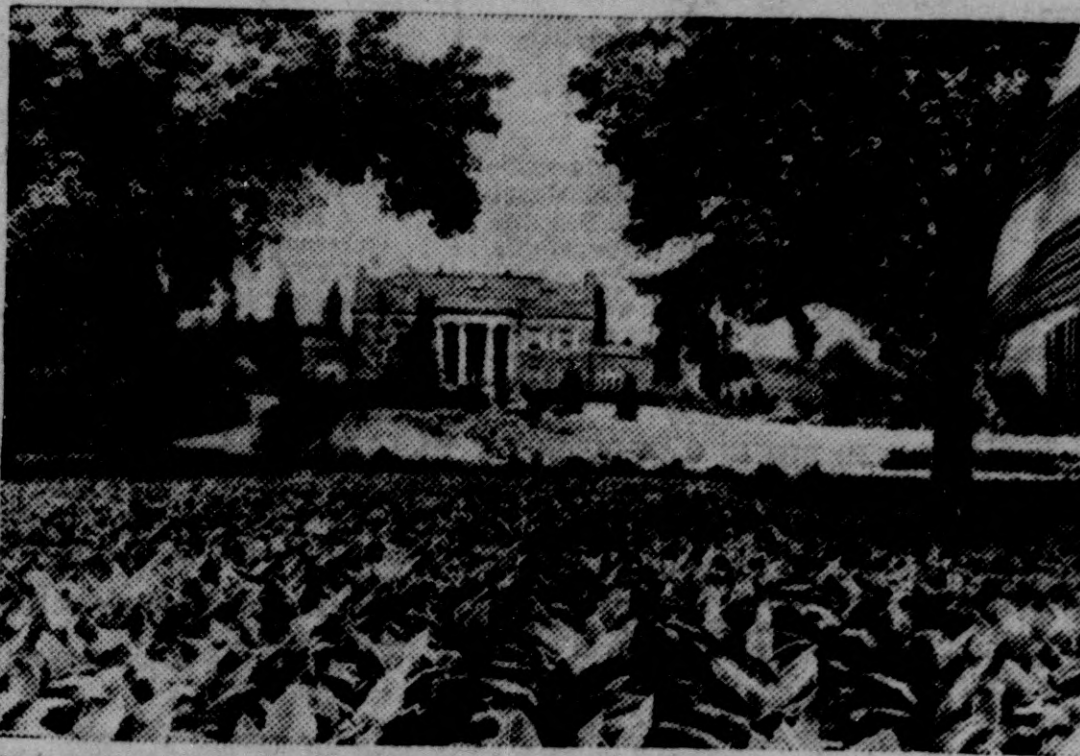

TAX LEVY FIGHT TO GO TO COURT

SHARON, Pa., Mar. 2.—The Sharon Real Estate Owners' association, composed of 50 men and women who own extensive property in the city, today instructed its counsel, Attorney Howard B. Smiley, to prepare a bill in equity which will be filed in the county court in an attempt to restrain city council from collecting taxes under the 12-mill levy adopted yesterday.

If a law which imposes a tax on gasoline shows that the tax is imposed on the consumer and not on the dealer, the consumer may deduct as a tax, for federal income-tax purposes, the amount of the gasoline tax paid by him; but the taxpayer must have kept records of the payment of such taxes in order that the deduction may be substantiated as is required by the law and the regulations. The Federal gasoline tax imposed by section 617 of the revenue act of 1932 is not deductible by the consumer. A taxpayer may ascertain whether the gasoline tax imposed by a State is deductible by the consumer or by the dealer by addressing an inquiry to the collector of internal revenue for his district.

In any case where the gasoline purchased is used for business purposes the tax may be added to the cost of the gasoline and deducted as a business expense; but where that is done, the gasoline tax can not be deducted separately under the item of taxes.

No. 27 DEDUCTION FOR TAX ON MOTOR GAS

If an automobile is used for both business and pleasure, all of the maintenance and operating expenses connected therewith, which constitute allowable deductions for federal income-tax purposes, should be allocated to the two uses on the basis of the time that it is used for each. For example, if the total expense of operation and maintenance, plus depreciation, for the taxable year amounted to $800, and the car was used three-fourths of the time for pleasure, the allowable deduction for federal income-tax purposes would be $600.

If a law which imposes a tax on gasoline shows that the tax is imposed on the consumer and not on the dealer, the consumer may deduct as a tax, for federal income-tax purposes, the amount of the gasoline tax paid by him; but the taxpayer must have kept records of the payment of such taxes in order that the deduction may be substantiated as is required by the law and the regulations. SHE WON OUT WITH LOVELY SKIN... You can, too!

You meet him...

The minute you meet a man you can tell whether he's interested. Even before you've had a chance to be clever or sweet, you can tell whether he likes your looks.

Most men don't know anything about clothes, really—but every one of them appreciates a beautiful complexion.

A delicate, soft smooth skin is terribly appealing to them, makes them anxious to know you better.

He gets into a close-up...

Has he asked you for a dance? Of course! You can be sure, if his eyes lighted up when he saw your face, he'll want to get closer—to see if he can believe his eyes!

And now, if you know your skin is softly alluring—you can feel happy dancing with him, because he will be fascinated.

Girls, watch out! You must be able to pass the close-up complexion test.

He can't resist alluring skin

Your soft, sweet, white skin has stirred him. Face, arms, shoulders...

When the dance is over, he hates to let you go. May he have another dance? May he see you home? See you tomorrow? Meet your family?

It's up to you now! You've attracted him with the oldest, most real allure in the world—smooth, soft skin.

Movie Stars do it this way

... You don't have to be a Hollywood star to have the lure of Hollywood skin.

You can use the same complexion care the stars use—actually 9 out of 10 stars use fragrant, white Lux Toilet Soap!

In the big love scenes, the men don't really have to act! They are so deeply moved by the loveliness of the stars' exquisite skin.

To be fascinating... irresistible... give your skin this same gentle care.

PAIN DEADENED CHEST COLDS LOOSENED WITHOUT DRUGS

Get quick relief from neuralgia, pain, sciatica pain, neuritis, rheumatic pain, lame back, stiff neck, headache, strains and chest colds by rubbing plenty of Baume Bengue (pronounced Ben-Gay) on the spot. It doesn't blister or stain. Rub it in till it sinks down and soothes the pain or breaks up the chest cold. Take no drugs, for any drug that is powerful enough to "dead" pain or loosen a chest cold may not be good for you.

But beware of imitations. Ask your druggist for Baume Bengue by name (called "Ben-Gay" in English). There are many analgesic balms, mostly cheap imitations of Baume Bengue made out of synthetic drugs. That is why they are ineffective. Insist on Ben-Gay and you will get real results.

Hope To Save $200,000,000 By New Plan

Comprehensive Plan Of Government Reorganization Given Roosevelt

WOULD EXTEND ROOSEVELT POWER

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Mar. 2.—A comprehensive plan of governmental reorganization, estimated to save possibly $200,000,000 a year, has been completed for presentation to President-Elect Roosevelt, it was disclosed today.

Under authority given the incoming president in the economy section of the treasury-post office supply bill, the reorganization plan can be put into effect by executive order. The reorganization plan, which involves both merging and abolishing many governmental agencies, was worked out by Rep. Lewis W. Douglas (D. of Arizona), selected to be director of the budget Swagart Sherly of Kentucky, adviser to Mr. Roosevelt and Senator James F. Byrnes, (D. of South Carolina).

Dictatorial Powers. Speaker Garner who revealed the progress made, reiterated his opinion that real, substantial reduction in the cost of the federal government cannot be made unless congress grants dictatorial powers to the president.

While Mr. Roosevelt will be able to reorganize and abolish bureaus subject to veto by two-thirds of congress, he cannot reduce salaries, veterans or other compensations fixed by law.

"The reorganization work was completed ten days ago," said Garner. "All that is needed to put it into effect is an executive order."

He estimated the plan would save "possibly $200,000,000" a year.

Public Education Faces Real Crisis

Schools Of Nation Forced To Suffer From Greatly Reduced Sources

Should Organize To Protect Rights Of School Children Of Nation

(In the following article written expressly for International News Service, Edwin C. Broome, Superintendent of Philadelphia schools, declares the propaganda of a minority is attempting to deliver a body blow to the public schools, using the pretext of economy for its excuse.)

By EDWIN C. BROOME (Copyright, 1933, by International News Service)

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Mar. 2.—There is a crisis in public education real and imminent. Sensible leaders of education realize that the schools, together with other branches of public service, must suffer from greatly reduced resources.

Teachers are accepting greatly reduced salaries and will do so before they will permit the rights of the children to be jeopardized. The danger that threatens the birthright of your children does not come from the school's having to share with other public services a reduced income. The danger which threatens the welfare of your children does not come from the school's having to share with other public services a reduced income. The danger which threatens the welfare of your children comes from vigorous, carefully organized propaganda on a national scale, specifically directed toward discrediting and crippling the public schools of the country.

Unfriendly Group

It is not the politicians. They know what the great masses of the people want for the children and would like to give it to them. It is those groups that are behind the politicians who put them into office and supply the resources—groups that have never been friendly to public education, who now in our great distress and under the plausible pretext of reducing the cost of government are coming out into the open and attempting to deliver a body blow to the public school. It is these who must be fought by all who believe that equal educational opportunities for all are the only safeguard of our American life and traditions.

Stage Gun Battle

GREELEY, Colo., Mar. 2.—A gun battle between Weld county police and two men believed to be the fleeing Boettcher kidnappers was staged on the highway north of here early this morning.

Shortly after 4 a. m., officers guarding the Greeley-Cheyenne highway saw the suspected car speeding along the highway. Orders to stop were ignored and the officers opened fire riddling the machine with bullets from high powered rifles. The car was pursued more than 50 miles to Cheyenne, Wyo., where it escaped.

New Bill Will Not Save Money In Venango Co.

Judge William Parker Two Years Ago Stopped Returns By Constables

(International News Service) OIL CITY, Pa., Mar. 2.—Abolition of constables' returns, under the bill signed by Governor Gifford Pinchot yesterday will not mean a saving to Venango county.

That reduction in cost was made two years ago when Judge William Parker of the Superior court, then on the Venango county bench, ruled that the constables should not make returns unless they had something to report.

The parade of blind ended then in Venango county.

The action has meant a saving of about $600 a year.

BOETTCHER SAFE IN DENVER HOME; RANSOM IS PAID

hours after release. His eyes were red and swollen from almost constant wearing of bandages and adhesive tape. He declared, however, that he had not been mistreated by his captors. Except for the 17 day ordeal of blindfolded imprisonment his physical condition was not affected. Claude K. Boettcher, father of the kidnap victim admitted payment of the ransom but refused to give any details. It was learned from unimpeachable sources by International News Service that the $60,000 was tossed out of an automobile near a culvert 10 miles east of Denver by an emissary of the family less than a half hour before the heir to millions was let out of an automobile in East Denver.

Father Is Hostile

The victim's father, hostile even to the point of drawing a gun when approached by newspapermen after young Charles' release, agreed to give a statement to the press later today.

Young Boettcher, after a trip which he estimated began Tuesday night, was let out of a car on the outskirts of Denver yesterday evening. After removing the adhesive tape from his eyes, he found a drug store telephone and called his father who notified police.

The meeting between Boettcher and his beautiful, blond wife, Mrs. Anna Lou Boettcher, was dramatic. Mrs. Boettcher, soon to become a mother the second time, was informed with a minimum of excitement of his return.

Dramatic Home Coming

While she sat tensely at home, the house, in an exclusive residential section, was surrounded by crowds of curious persons, who packed the lawn in front of the dwelling.

Suddenly, at the side entrance, where the crowd was least congested, the young man drew up and two men darted through into the shelter of the house.

One was fresh-faced and dapperly pressed—Dr. John M. Foster, family physician and intimate friend of the kidnaped broker. But the other's features were marred by a stubbly beard and some spots about the swollen eyes. The crowd did not recognize Charles Boettcher until he already was inside.

Happy Reunion

Mrs. Boettcher ran to meet him and they threw their arms about each other, with happy cries and broken words of affection.

Before being brought to his own home young Boettcher told his story of the abduction to chief of police Clark. He said his captors bound him with adhesive tape and bandages immediately after they drove him away from his home 17 days ago. He was kept blindfolded practically all the time during his imprisonment.

Young Boettcher told police his abductors brought him into Denver about 7 o'clock Wednesday night. Releasing his blindfold they told him to count up to 150, then walk a block and telephone to his home.

Telephones Father

"I was put out of the car at Gaylord, between East 34th and 35th," young Boettcher said. "The abductors drove away and I telephoned to my father."

Henry Van Schaack wealthy banker and Claude K. Boettcher, the father, immediately drove to the drug store and rushed Charles to the home of S. W. Sinsheimer, a family friend.

Dr. John M. Foster, personal friend of Boettcher, is believed to have acted as emissary for the family in placing the $60,000 at the disposal of the abductors.

The note read: "I am a friend of Zangara and I want to take up the work that he failed to do."

"I kill all presidents, governors and millionaires. I hate policemen and kill all your officers who I see on streets at midnight. I am one who killed Kansas City millionaire so I kill police."

Miss Sarah C. Walsh, 63, Of Milwaukee, Is School Teacher, Daughter Is Married

(International News Service) MILWAUKEE, Mar. 2.—Miss Sarah C. Walsh, 63, a teacher in the Milwaukee public schools for 32 years, was called from her class in the Fraternity school today to be informed of the death of her brother, United States Senator Thomas J. Walsh, of Montana.

Miss Walsh, vice president of the Milwaukee Teachers' Association, said: "Of course, I am shocked to hear of Tom's death. We always considered him the strongest member of the family and none of us knew he was ill."

Death Changes Plans NORFOLK, Va., Mar. 2.—Joyous anticipation turned to sorrow here today as Mrs. C. E. Guder, wife of a naval officer, and daughter of Senator Thomas J. Walsh, received word of her father's death at Wilson, N. C.

Captain and Mrs. Guder and their two small daughters had planned to visit Washington tomorrow to witness the inaugural ceremony as guests of the attorney general designate. Instead, they will leave today to meet the train carrying Senator Walsh's body to the capital.

a consumption charge to be made subject to a minimum bill, reasonable in amount. They also ask that the respondent's rates in each of the several areas be based on the cost of service and the value of the property in use in that area instead of considering the entire property as a whole. However, the evidence in the record—and upon that record alone the commission can base its findings—is not sufficient to justify the conclusion that the rates complained of are unjust or unreasonable or that anyone of the communities is discriminated against, therefore.

Montana Mourns For Leading Son

Sorrow At Walsh's Death Grips Entire State—People Shocked

(International News Service) HELENA, Mont., Mar. 2.—Deep sorrow gripped the entire state of Montana today when news was received here of the sudden death of Senator Thomas J. Walsh, attorney general-designate in the Roosevelt cabinet.

Senator Walsh came to Helena in 1890, from Redfield, S. D., where he had practiced law with a brother, Henry C. Walsh. He entered upon the practice of law in this city and became interested in politics within a few years. He made one unsuccessful race for Congress in 1910 and was elected as United States senator in 1913. He was serving his fourth successive term in the Senate when he resigned last week in order to become attorney general in the Roosevelt cabinet.

The death of Senator Walsh will not change the status of the heated campaign being waged by several candidates to succeed him in the Senate. A successor has been talked of since Senator Walsh's name was first mentioned in connection with a cabinet appointment.

Governor J. E. Erickson could not be reached early today for a statement, but it was known that at least four candidates are in the running for appointment as Walsh's successor. His term would have expired in 1937.

FARMERS' PROBLEMS

Editor of The News, Dear Sir:—

With a tax bill of $300 for 1932 and with incomes dwindling to almost nothing it is only a question how long we who own our own farms can stand this. I find that I am losing money every day. What about the man who is in debt with a large interest bill due on top of his taxes? Just the other day a neighbor called at my home with his wife and two children. After years of hard work and saving they are forced to leave their home and to move out with no place of shelter in which to move. For the reason that this man cannot collect what money is due him.

If we cannot pay for nine months of school why not cut it to four months? Better have three or four months than none. The same rule should apply to other taxes. Who will pay these enormous taxes when all our good neighbors have been driven off these farms? By raising taxes too high you kill the very thing they are intended to do.

Warns Against Spark Danger

Fire Chief Stockman Calls Attention To Provisions Of Bofire Permits

SERIOUS FIRES OCCUR FROM SPARKS

Fire Chief H. Clare Stockman calls attention to the danger of flying sparks from burning grass, leaves and brush at this season of the year, when people are cleaning up about their premises, and urges that people not only live up to the city ordinance requiring a permit to burn rubbish, but also adhere to the provisions outlined in the permit for procedure in burning waste materials.

The wording of the permit follows:

"Permit is hereby given (John Doe) for the burning of a pile of rubbish or combustible material outside the built up portions of the city of New Castle, on open ground, where such piling of rubbish or combustible material is distant 50 feet from any building or structure, and the burning pile of rubbish is not over six feet in diameter, to wit: At (blank lot) under the following conditions:

"The applicant shall place a competent adult person in charge of said fire, which shall not be lighted before 7 o'clock in the morning, and be extinguished by 7 o'clock of the evening of the same day. Where the said fire is less than 100 feet distant from any building or structure, the said adult person shall be provided with a garden or other hose, attached to hydrant or spigot, otherwise have sufficient pails and water nearby so as to protect adjacent property from fire; and also under the further provisions that no person obtaining a permit shall light or maintain any such fire on said open ground when the wind is blowing with such velocity as to carry fire to any building or structure."

This permit must be secured from the fire chief. Burning of wood in furnaces and heaters has caused a fire menace in addition to the practice of setting fires in brush and rubbish, the fire chief believes. Blown by a high wind, sparks from the chimney or from a brush fire may lodge under weatherboarding, around eaves or cornice or even under the slate of the roof and cause a bad fire.

Stuffed Grates. "If you have an old grate in your house that is not in use, see that it is bricked up tight," Chief Stockman warns, "so that no sparks can get into it. Many old grates in homes are stuffed with paper and rags, covered over with some light material and papered over, or a piece of furniture set in front of them. If a spark should get down the flue and set fire to this stuffing, in a grate like this, a very serious fire occurs."

Navy Wants Men For Waiting List

Young men between the ages of 17 and 25 years, with proper physical and mental requirements, are wanted at the navy recruiting office, second floor, city building. Those successful in passing the required tests will be placed on the waiting list of eligibles and will have an opportunity of joining the navy in a short time. Chief Machinist's Mate C. F. Gerry is in charge of the recruiting station and will make the examinations.

Cost $2.70 Weekly For Inmates Kept At County Home

Detailed Statement For January Includes Overhead Of Operating Plant

According to an exhaustive study of costs at the county home made by P. O. Elder, chairman of the poor board and F. R. Woods, a member, the average daily cost per person for the month of January was 38 cents, or $2.70 per week. This includes overhead and expenses of all kinds.

The bill for provisions shows, $507.34 for groceries, $61.38 for milk, and $108.95 for meat, or a total of $677.67.

Electric light and power cost, $149.80; coal, $133.56; gas $5.40, telephone, $9.85.

Salary expense included superintendent and matron, $150; bookkeeper $40; and domestic help, $128, or a total salary expense of $318.

Shoes and clothing, $128.15; tobacco, $65.67; soaps and cleansing powders, $46.50; bedding, $44.52; furnishings, rugs, $22.62; motor oil $5.75; electric light bulbs, $1.32; supplies for operation, $33.47; towel, toilet tissues, janitor's supplies, etc. $36.68; laundry supplies, $2.10; material and repairs for boilers, $17.23; drugs, $66.05; burial of inmates, $150; farm labor, $2; rubbish hauling 75 cents. Total $1,917.09.

Number of days support of inmates during January, 4,927; 86 transients furnished 166 meals, equivalent to 55 days, or a total of 4,982 for one person.

Average number of inmates during January, 160. Average cost, 38 cents or $2.70 per week.

Items produced at the home and used during January 6 bushel beets, 35 bushels potatoes, 65 quarts berries, 20 quarts peaches, and 5 and 2-12th dozen eggs.

This is the most complete detailed statement of costs of maintaining the home for a month which has ever been put out, and indicates a rigid desire to keep costs down to a minimum.

The number of inmates at the home now is a little greater than in January.

Street light globes here are kept clean by a staff of employees of the Pennsylvania Power company which has the city lighting contract. Each day the men are at work in some section of the city.

Gas Bloating

Does eating even the simplest food make your stomach and bowels fill up with gas until you think you're going to suffocate?

Then just try this before you eat: Take a tablespoonful of artificial digestive juice such as you are supposed to have in your stomach naturally (druggists call it "Mentha Pepsin") and you'll have no more trouble. No gas. No pain. No bloating. No distress of any kind.

Money back, says Eckerd's Drug Store, any time that Dare's Mentha Pepsin fails to give relief.

We hear much of a moratorium on debts but nothing done. We have been pleading, asking politely, and using gentlemanly means to secure the rights of the people. The time has arrived to demand in no uncertain terms. How about a moratorium of all salaries of public officials beginning with the president down to the lowest township officer; providing a rate of $50.00 to $75.00 for workers such as school teachers, policemen, and firemen or those with no means of support. This for the year 1933 and as long afterward as deemed necessary. I know of no other one thing which would restore faith in our government so quickly.

Some say the saving thus effected would only be a drop in the bucket. Let us have that drop. I would like to ask Mr. Drake or Mr. Butler or anyone who can to publish an approximately budget for Lawrence county on that basis. Let us know what the savings would be in terms of taxes.

Let me make this comment. A woman, no matter what her husband's position, who releases to the press a description of an extensive wardrobe for whatever purpose shows exceedingly bad taste and very poor judgment or else an ignorance unexplained of the true condition of the country. In times like this when countless children are suffering for sufficient clothes and those who have spent their strength and of as good a ancestry as she, have insufficient food and their poor limbs aching with cold. I say that it is high time the people claim their ownership of a government of a people, by a people, and for a people, and discharge public officials who refuse to do their duty in these times of stress.

What we need is not people who can think. Too much thinking has been done already. What we need is people who can act and a leader who will lead. I am no communist either. The only man I know who would have the courage is General Smedley Butler. I propose we draft him to lead us to victory. With that old battle scarred veteran we could scale the heights and return to enjoy the fruits of victory. I say on to Washington.

I am enclosing a clipping from a farm paper. But I don't think it is all up to the farmers. Tax leagues, social clubs, welfare societies and churches and farmers should unite in demonstration or more and refuse to pay tax till budgets are reduced to their satisfaction.

We would like to suggest to farmers of America that while they are protesting and acting, they would do this country an inestimable service if they would all load into cars some day and visit their township trustees, and the county courthouses, and proceed to scuttle the political ship of every officeholder who fails to join in ruthless re-trenchment in expenditures. And since many state legislatures are in session, they might all get together and descend on the capitol buildings and serve like notice. And since they would have started something, why not about a quarter million farmers each throw a quarter of beef, skillet and other roadside dinner perquisites in the back seat and ride into Washington for a similar "conference" with the big spenders there. Until riotous public expenditure of money is curbed, farmers and other taxpayers of this country should never cease scuttling political ships from the lowly precinct clear on up to the top of the list. As yet the public has virtually remained inactive except to growl against taxes. It is time they did something more expressive than growl, just as they are doing over foreclosures.

Respectfully,
MRS. FRANK J. COOPER,

A & P Coffees are expensive coffees—at the plantations in South America. As the world's largest coffee buyer, we always have first choice of the crops. We pay an extra premium, when necessary, to obtain the quality we insist upon.

But these fine coffees cost you little because we bring them to you from the planter direct—bought, shipped, distributed, roasted and sold—all by A & P and all at one small profit.

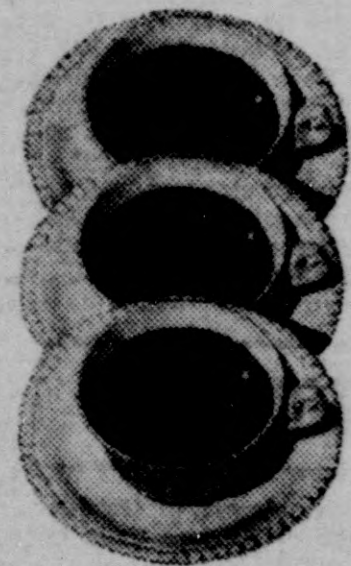

And because they are roasted in our widely distributed local roasting plants, we are able to deliver them frequently to your neighborhood A & P Store, inexpensively packed, still in the bean, with all the flavor of freshly roasted coffee protected by nature's own unbroken seal.

Your coffee is then ground before your eyes exactly right for your method of making—and the aroma of oven-fresh coffee in every A & P Store is your guarantee of the natural freshness of A & P Coffee.

This is A & P Coffee Service. No other coffee merchant has it. So A & P alone can offer you these expensive coffees at these low prices.

REMEMBER
the coffee you like
best is the best for you,
no matter what
it costs

EIGHT O'CLOCK COFFEE MILD AND MELLOW 19¢ lb.
RED CIRCLE COFFEE RICH AND FULL-BODIED 21¢ lb.
BOKAR COFFEE VIGOROUS AND WINEY 25¢ lb.

Equal in quality, though different in flavor, these coffees are packed in the bean, ground fresh in the store. Bokar also packed "steel-cut".

DISCUSSES TAX REDUCTION

I note that in a recent issue, your Hints and Dints man says we need people who can think.

I realize that there is a difference between those who can think and those who merely think they can think. Which class I belong to I leave you to judge as by the nature of things I should be an incompetent judge.

I believe that we need to have the courage to present our views. Too many who really can think understate their ability and remain in the background, letting bolder ones with less brains do their thinking.

If the spirit of '76 is abroad in the land, now is no time for shriveling violets. In accordance with that I now plunge head first into the maelstrom.

We hear much of a moratorium on debts but nothing done. We have been pleading, asking politely, and using gentlemanly means to secure the rights of the people. Temple Israel Friday Service

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Love Will Be Hosts At Birthday Party After Service

Temple Israel, Highland and Moody avenues, will conduct its next regular service on Friday evening, March 3, at 8 o'clock. Rabbi Avery Jonah Grossfeld officiating. The topic of the sermon will be "Building Sanctuaries," and will be based on the text taken from the Book of Exodus, chapter 25, verses 1-8.

The Saturday morning program includes religious school classes between 9:30 and 11 o'clock, and religious services between 11 and 12 o'clock. Two members of the children's congregation—Robert Goldmann and Carolyn Cosell—will take part in reading the prayers.

The flowers that will adorn the pulpit this week-end have been offered by Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Roman of Beaver Falls in loving memory of their mother, Mrs. Anna Barnett Marcus, the anniversary of whose death occurs this week.

After the Friday evening services, the members and friends will enjoy an hour of fellowship in the vestry rooms of the temple; Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Love will be the hosts in honor of the 13th birthday of their daughter Reva.

It isn't so hard to get a job of work. You just ride the rods in Dixie and next day you get a shovel.

County Is Given $56,315 For Aid

Allocation For March Is Made By State Relief
Board

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Mar. 2.—County emergency relief boards throughout Pennsylvania today continued their activities on a $6,203,000 allocation authorized at the weekly meeting of the state board late yesterday.

The money represents $1,500,000 in state funds, the last of the $12,000,000 Talbot act appropriation and the remainder is federal government loans.

Although the reconstruction finance corporation has advanced Pennsylvania $3,224,429 from March no definite assurance has been received that another loan will be forthcoming in April, Gov. Gifford Pinchot announced.

An additional $400,000 was awarded for March to milk stations which are providing free milk to the needy.

The grants to individual counties include: Allegheny, $1,029,011; Armstrong, $23,259; Beaver, $129,589; Blair, $35,826; Butler, $11,605; Cambria, $59,942; Cameron, $4,266; Centre, $28,544; Clarion, $11,060; Clearfield, $100,000; Crawford, $16,418; Elk, $31,692; Erie, $76,468; Fayette, $152,590; Forest, $3,250; Greene, $9,994; Huntingdon, $21,810; Indiana, $26,760; Jefferson, $50,460; Juniata, $1,316; Lawrence, $56,315; McKean, $38,943; Mercer, $63,200; Mifflin, $20,081; Snyder, $13,735; Somerset, $64,500; Tioga, $37,095; Venango, $63,593; Warren, $14,429; Washington, $104,995; Westmoreland, $155,979; Potter, $23,320.

Fire Loss Last Month Is Small

Damage Amounted To $12,640, Most Of Which Was Outside The City

Last month's fire loss, as reported by Fire Chief H. Clare Stockman, was $12,640, of which amount, $8,000 resulted from a fire outside the city, making the city's actual loss but $4,640.

There were 37 alarms answered during the month, and of this number 4 were false alarms. B. truck at central station answered 27 alarms, 10 each; No. 6 answered 8; No. 2 answered 7; No. 1 company answered 6; A. truck and No. 3 answered 3 each and No. 7 answered but 1.

The total property value of the buildings in which fires occurred, was $371,200, so it will be seen that the loss in comparison was quite small. Uninsured loss amounted to $1,600.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sick and the world looks pink, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, or candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and out." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resist a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

Rev. C. Garmon Johnston, pastor of Center church, and Mrs. Johnston and her father, David Humphrey of New Brighton, called on old friends at Gardner on Saturday evening.

The Woman's Mission circle of Center United Presbyterian church met on Thursday afternoon of this week at the parsonage. An interesting program followed the business meeting.

Miss Elizabeth Croup who has made an extended visit with her uncle and aunt and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Robb of Gardner left on Thursday to go to visit her aunt, Mrs. Charles Palmer of Princeton.

Francis Mitchell, son of Lieut. and Mrs. Francis Mitchell of the Graceland road, has gone back to school after a prolonged illness, as he had scarlet fever in November, and had to rest in bed for some time after that.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Reed of the old Pittsburgh road entertained all of their children over last week-end, after the funeral of Mr. Reed's brother, Dr. Charles A. Reed. Mr. and Mrs. Jay Smith and daughter Helen of Erie, Mr. and Mrs. Mayberry and Mildred of Altoona, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Reed of the old Pittsburgh road, and Dr. J. L. Reed and family of New Castle.

One item in this column two weeks ago was not correct. Mabel Walker did not go back to school after being out several weeks on account of an inflamed ankle. The wound caused the sting of a mosquito six months ago still baffling medical skill and just what the end will be is yet uncertain. This is a hard trial for a young girl and Mabel and her family have the sympathy of all.

AWARDED CONTRACT FOR PICTURES OF
NEW POST OFFICE

Leo P. Strizzi, local photographer, was low bidder for the photographs to be taken of the new postoffice during its construction and also when it is completed. The bids were opened and the contract awarded on February 9.

Two photographs are to be taken of the new postoffice each month, showing the progress being made in its construction, and when it is completed, five different views of the new building are to be taken. These photographs are to be taken as one means by which the government may determine the actual progress being made in the construction of the building.

Charter Car For Inaugural Trip

New Castle Delegation Of 50 Leaves Tomorrow; Returns Sunday

One special railroad car had today been chartered to carry New Castle's party to the Roosevelt inauguration at Washington tomorrow night, it was announced today. Under the leadership of Miss Marjorie Rhodes, assistant principal of the senior high school, a group of 25 students and 25 adults, including several teachers, will leave here on Friday evening at 7:35, reaching the capital on Saturday morning.

Arriving in the nation's capital early in the day, the local party will go directly to its special rooms in the Winston hotel. Sightseeing will occupy the majority of the delegation's time, although during the inaugural events the group intends to concentrate its attention on the Capitol and White House.

Early on Saturday evening the group will board its train for the return trip, arriving in New Castle at the Pennsylvania depot, at 10:06 a. m.

A world economic conference can't be prepared in a day. It takes time for Europe to stack the cards.

Divine-Schenck Kidnaping Case Is Nearing Jury

Clearfield Court Hears Detective Tell Of Trying To Solve Lindbergh Case

FISH PEDDLER BECAME SCARED

(International News Service)

CLEARFIELD, Pa., Mar. 2.—The Divine-Schenck kidnaping case, which has developed testimony that John J. Devine, private detective, would have solved the Lindbergh kidnaping mystery "within two weeks" if he had been free from interference, neared the jury in Clearfield county court today.

Devine and seven other defendants are charged with luring Garrett Schenck, fish peddler, from Hopewell, N. J., to Pennsylvania last June and holding him captive for nearly three months in an effort to obtain a "confession" to the Lindbergh case.

Devine testified in his own defense that solution of the mystery—a solution which he said would have involved Schenck—was but a matter of time when Mayor Eddie McCloskey of Johnstown stepped into the case and procured the release of Schenck from a mountain cabin.

Lived Near Lindberghs

Schenck, Devine testified, lived with a man named Pat Lane in a house only a short distance from the Lindbergh estate at Hopewell. The Lane house and the Lindbergh estate, he said, were connected by a private road. He added:

"Blood hounds once followed a trail from the Colonel's place to the woodpile at the Lane Home."

Throughout the trial, the defense has contended that Schenck was a willing companion of Devine's on the trip from Hopewell to Clearfield county and Devine testified that Schenck, frightened by rumors linking him with the Lindbergh kidnaping, wanted to get out of Hopewell but lacked the necessary funds.

Ligier Banker Will Face Charge Of Embezzlement

Trial Of George Clifford Frank Scheduled For Pittsburgh Today

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 2.—Trial of George Clifford Frank, former president of the Ligier National bank, on charges of embezzlement and misapplication of bank funds reported to involve more than $150,000, was scheduled to open in federal court today.

Investigation was begun by federal attaches following a reported robbery in the bank last April. The bank is protected by insurance, according to federal authorities. The indictment returned against Frank last November contains 17 counts charging embezzlement and two counts charging misapplication.

MILLBURN

Mrs. Charles Blumenshine is recovering very satisfactorily from a recent minor operation.

Michael Pavkovich is confined to his bed with a very painful attack of sciatica and lumbago.

Elmer Wimer has secured employment in Pittsburgh and left for his new duties last week.

Mrs. Charles Bougher entertained her sister, Mrs. Flynn, and family of Pittsburgh, over the week end.

William Campbell and family, of Buffalo, N. Y., were week end guests of his brother, J. A. Campbell, and wife.

Mrs. J. H. Armstrong visited her brother, David, who is a patient at Mercer Cottage hospital the first of the week.

W. E. Hartt of Erie, and J. E. Van Alsburg of North East, spent Thursday with the former's brother, J. P. Hartt.

Mrs. Maria Robinson and daughter, Frances, called on friends in Ellwood City and New Castle on Washington's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spencer and children visited the former's mother, Mrs. Jennie Spencer, of Grove City, Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mayne are moving this week from the John Robinson farm to the Thomas Munnell house on East Beaver street, Mercer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Drake and Mrs. Gladden of Pittsburgh, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Drake. Rev. William Lloyd was also a recent caller in the Drake home.

Alfred Ramsey and William Blake accompanied County Agent Waha to New Castle for the banquet of the American Jersey Cattle Association which was held at Highland U. F. church.

Millburn Grange initiated six new members in the third and fourth degrees at their regular meeting last week. At the close of the meeting a delicious light lunch was served under the direction of a committee composed of Anna Butler, Mrs. J. H. Armstrong, and Mrs. Fred Metzgar. The ways and means committee announced a bingo party at the hall on Friday evening, March 3 to which the public is invited. The lodge room at the hall has been repapered and varnished and presents a very attractive appearance. The committee in charge expect to redecorate the kitchen in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Orr, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Minich, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Johnston, and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hartt attended the Venango County Pomona Grange meeting at Diamond Grange in that county on Saturday, February 25. The occasion was the carrying of the traveling gavel by Mercer County Pomona Grange to the sister county. The gavel being used in the western section of the state this year is of historical value, being the one presented to Hon. John A. McSparran, Master of Pennsylvania State Grange in 1916. The gavel was made from a portion of girder which supported the original floor of Independence Hall in 1776 and was removed during its restoration in 1897. About 34 from Mercer county were present at Diamond Grange on Saturday.

PUMA RIOT VICTIM

(International News Service)

HOLLYWOOD, Calif.—Visitors at a motion picture studio during the filming of a scene were treated to an unexpected thrill when a cage of wild animals ran amuck. During the four hour fight lions, tigers, pumas, hyenas, leopards and panthers chewed each other ferociously. When it was over one puma was dead.

Utilities League Committee Drafts Repeal Measures

Will Try To Outlaw Administration Of Artificial And Natural Gas In State

IS FIRST STEP IN RATES FIGHT

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 2.—Moving swiftly in a concerted attack on one phase of its fight against utility rates, a committee of the newly organized utilities league for municipalities today was drafting repeal legislation to outlaw the admixture of artificial and natural gas.

The measure will be introduced in the Legislature as a repeal of an act of 1917 which permits mixing of the two kinds of gas fuel.

Decision to attack gas mixing in the State Legislature came late yesterday at the second meeting of the new organization which draws its membership from 35 cities, boroughs and townships in the vicinity of Pittsburgh.

White On Committee

A committee consisting of David I. McAlister of Washington, Pa., Robert M. White, of New Castle, and Charles H. Stone, of Beaver, was appointed to draft necessary legislation.

D. Glenn Moore, president of the organization, announced at the meeting that three communities, New Castle, Butler and Washington, already have pledged $1,000 to the fund being raised to conduct the fight on utility rates and service. Other communities have been asked to make proportionate donations.

Fight Unfair Rates

The association was organized originally to fight what were termed unfair rates of the Manufacturers Light & Heat Company as well as that concern's practice of mixing natural and artificial gas.

An executive committee meeting is to be held soon to draft a definite outline of plans for carrying on the fight. Members of the committee are President Moore; David I. McAlister; Burgess J. C. Turner, Ellwood City; Charles H. Stone; Robert M. White, New Castle; May- or Robert E. Griffiths, Washington; H. P. Botsford, Carnegie; Joseph N. Arthur, Avalon; and John A. Elliott, Beaver Falls.

SWICK, TEMPLE AND COCHRAN OPPOSE BILL

By ARTHUR C. WIMER

Special Washington Correspondent of The New Castle News

WASHINGTON, Mar. 2.—Representatives Swick of Beaver Falls, Temple of Erie, Washington, and Cochran of Mercer all voted against the Smith cotton bill this week when that measure was passed by the House.

The bill proposes to reduce the production of cotton by crediting to farmers agreeing to cut their acreage the cotton now held by the Federal Farm Board. It was passed by the Senate some days ago. President Hoover is opposed to it despite the fact that administration Senators voted for it.

The House approved the measure by a 188 to 183 ballot. Representative Swick was joined with his colleagues, Congressman Temple and Cochran in voting against passage.

Oppose Plan For Changing School System In State

(International News Service)

BROOKVILLE, Pa., Mar. 2.—School directors of Jefferson county—a county without a state college—were aligned today against curtailment in number or activity of state teachers' colleges.

The Jefferson County School Directors' association went on record as opposing a new school code and opposing the proposed Wilson bill, now before the legislature, which would drastically alter the present school government system.

Criticism was voiced of attempts to place the control of teachers' colleges in the hands of an educational council to be named by the governor.

Ivorite Lodges To Have Joint Meeting

Will Hold Program In Observance Of St. David's Day On Tuesday

A joint meeting of Star of Wales and Martha Lodges of the True Ivorites of America, will be held next Tuesday evening. This will be a part of the observance of St. David's season by the members of the two organizations. A lunch will be served at the close of the meeting and a fine program will be presented in conjunction with the lunch.

Four Opinions By Judge Chambers

Decisions Handed Down In Cases Tried At Former Sessions Of Court

Four opinions were handed down by Judge James A. Chambers on Wednesday in cases that have been tried before him.

In the case of Thomas C. Snow against Louis E. Bogle, motion of plaintiff for judgment notwithstanding the verdict is overruled. This was a case growing out of a levy for rent. It was claimed by the defendant that no invoice of the goods levied upon had been given him. A verdict was directed in favor of the defendant.

In the case of James Postich against Julia Boyt, a rule on defendant's motion for a specific statement of claim is discharged. The case involved some work done on buildings at Bessemer.

In the case of Samuel Clark, by his father, Elmo Clark, against Magdaline Babiarz, preliminary objections by defendant to a bill in equity are dismissed. This is a case in which a verdict was obtained against Mrs. Babiarz for injuries to Samuel Clark, a minor, when an old tree on the Babiarz lot on Pennsylvania avenue fell on him. The bill claimed that Mrs. Babiarz had disposed of property and given fictitious judgments in order to escape paying the amount of the verdict.

In the case of the borough of Ellwood City against N. Spanka, appeal from the judgment of the burgess, the defendant is discharged. This was a case in which a charge had been brought against Spanka for conducting a photograph gallery and enlarging pictures without having secured a license from the borough under an ordinance relating to transient merchants. It is held that the evidence did not support the charge that defendant was not conducting a retail business.

Co. Commissioners Voluntarily Cuts Pay

BUTLER, Pa., Mar. 1.—R. O. Wood, Democratic member of the board of county commissioners, announced yesterday that he would return to the treasurer, 10 per cent of his salary from January 1, 1933. At a recent meeting, with the Butler County Taxpayers League committee, elective officials of the county rejected a proposal that they voluntarily cut their pay, but Commissioner Wood said he did not vote at that time.

To Provide "Sons" For Dinner Tonight

Phalanx Invites Underprivileged Lads For 28 Men; Hear Meet Reports

Twenty-eight "sons" for 28 "fathers" will be provided by the city's Phalanx fraternity, young men's service organization, for tonight's first annual Fathers and Sons banquet at the Cathedral. The requests for underprivileged "sons" have been made by men who would otherwise attend alone. They will be met at the Cathedral.

The Phalanx, directing the ticket sale, completed a tally of their figures last night, at a meeting in the Y. M. C. A. Reports were also brought to the chapter of the Coraopolis state convention of Phalanx, held over the past week end. Three delegates, President Earle Brookover, Chris Clark and Al Owens, gave talks.

The membership of Phalanx will attend tonight with an underprivileged boy accompanying them.

Probe Death Of Illinois Girl

Asher Earle Bentley, 35, Married, Son Of Former Pontiac, Ill., Mayor

TELLS STORY OF

SEVERAL DRINKS

(International News Service)
PONTIAC, Ill., Mar. 2.—Asher Earle Bentley, 35, married son of a former Pontiac mayor, remained in jail today while an autopsy was conducted to determine how Miss Aldine Younger, 20 year old heiress, met death following a gay roadhouse party.

Dr. William D. McNally, summoned from Chicago, made the post mortem examination of the girl's body. He also began an examination of stains found on the fender of Bentley's automobile to determine whether the stains are those of human blood.

Skull Crushed.

The girl's body was found on a roadside four and a half miles west of here yesterday. The skull was crushed and there were numerous cuts and bruises on the body.

Questioned by Sheriff John Heckman, Bentley told a vague story of the evening's events, particularly regarding the place where he parked his automobile before he suddenly missed his girl companion.

"We had several drinks together at a roadhouse," he explained. "I drove out in the country and parked. I fell asleep and when I awoke Miss Younger was gone. I do not know what happened to her."

Erie Robber Tells Of Deceiving His Mother About Job

Erie Robber Held By Police
Says He Hated To Tell
Mother He Was Discharged

(International News Service)
ERIE, Pa., Mar. 2.—If Bill Owens hadn't worn corduroy trousers, his mother might not have found out today that he was discharged by the New York Central railroad over a month ago.

Police found the marks of corduroy trousers in the snow on the window ledge of a robbed confectionary. They arrested Bill, wearing corduroy trousers.

Police said Bill told them this story:

He was fired over a month ago and, afraid to tell his mother the truth, he told her he was only laid off a month.

At the end of the month, he resumed getting up at 4 a. m. as if to make his run. He loafed about town. Then "payday" came. So he robbed the confectionary of $100 to obtain his "pay."

Pomona Grange At Plaingrove

Traveling Gavel Is Presented To Lawrence County At Meeting Wednesday
noon

W. S. Fullerton, master of Pomona Grange, reports that the largest meeting of the Lawrence county Pomona grange held in years was that of Wednesday when eight counties were represented when the members assembled in the Plaingrove hall.

State Master, J. A. Boak, State Ceres, Sarah Caven of Beaver; two state deputies Howard Eisman, of Mercer and Harvey Adams of Butler and Pomona master Armstrong of Mercer county; Bumpus of Venango county; Morris of Washington county and Douglass of Beaver county were among those present.

The literary program and traveling gavel ceremony were presented to Lawrence county by Venango county and the feature number of the program was a one act play "The Singapore Spider." The gavel presentation was most impressive as it was given to Lawrence county Pomona master by the Venango master.

Tuesday, March 7, the Lawrence County Pomona will take the traveling gavel and the literary program to Washington County. Pomona Grange, at the meeting in Washington.

The ladies of the Plaingrove grange served a most delicious dinner to more than two hundred and fifty at noon.

Just put it on the rupture and the opening closes naturally so the need of a support or truss or appliance is eventually done away with. Don't neglect to send for the free trial of this Stimulating Application. What is the use of wearing supports all your life, if you don't have to? Why run the risk of gangrene and such dangers from a small and innocent little rupture, the kind that has thrown thousands on the operating table. A host of men and women are daily running such risk just because their ruptures do not hurt or prevent them from getting around. Write at once for this free trial as it is certainly a wonderful thing and has helped in healing ruptures that were as big as a man's two fists. Try and write at once to W. S. Pinchot Will Meet Marchers In Harrisburg

Pleas For $160,000,000 Jobless Relief Demanded
Of Legislators

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Mar. 2.—With their pleas for a $160,000,000 jobless relief appropriation spread upon the official records of the Legislature, 600 "hunger marchers" were to stage a counter march from their temporary quarters at the farm show building to the Capitol today at 1 o'clock.

Gov. Gifford Pinchot was to meet either a delegation of the marchers in his reception room at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon or the entire group on the Capitol steps. State and motor patrolmen were to escort the marchers.

HI-Y 'M. U. F.' CAMPAIGN OPENS

Beaver Falls Pastor, Others
Heard At School; Plan
Interviews

With appropriate addresses delivered by a Beaver Falls minister and others the annual "Move Up Forward" drive of the Senior high school, sponsored by the school's energetic HI-Y club got away at an impressive start this morning.

The Rev. D. Bruce Martin, reformed Presbyterian church pastor of Beaver Falls, spoke to the young men of the junior and senior classes at a special chapel program in the school's auditorium at 10:30. After he spoke, high school and Y associates were heard.

Boy's Work Secretary W. A. Thomas is the director of the campaign for the Y. M. C. A. while Robert Mills, member of the high school faculty, is supervising the drive at the school. HI-Y club officers are aiding him.

The "Move Up Forward" drive aims to bring young men of the upper high school classes to a more practical realization of their future interests to help them decide just which course they are best fitted to follow and to give some material aid to them in the pursuit of their chosen course.

Business and professional men of the city volunteer their time and personal service toward promoting the campaign. They grant interviews to any boys desiring them.

While today's chapel formally made known the campaign, actual interviewing work will not take place until March 14 and 15. Application blanks signed today by interested boys will be fully studied to determine what profession or what type of business men will be needed to meet the boys.

Malnutrition Board Meeting

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Mar. 2.—Approximately 25 members of the executive committee of the state's malnutrition board conferred here today on plans for the care of needy children throughout the commonwealth.

After giving a brief speech before the committee, Gov. Pinchot lauded the work it has set out to accomplish.

"I think it is the most important movement undertaken for the benefit of children in Pennsylvania," he stated.

New Castle High Defeats Union 51 To 24

New Castle Goes To Quarter Finals In Tourney Battle

New Castle Flashes Strong Second Half Attack That Subdues Fighting Union

Teplica, Reiber And Morrison High Score Men; Small Crowd Sees Tourney Game

New Castle high school basketball team, Section Three champions, advanced to the quarter-finals of the W. P. I. A. L. schoolboy tourney by disposing of a fighting Union high basketball team, Section Eighteen winners, last night at the Westminster College gym at New Wilmington. The final score was 51 to 24. Union fought hard for two periods and then wilted under the withering attack of the New Castle passers. Teplica, Reiber and Morrison were the high scorers of the game. New Castle was slow in getting started. Only several hundred fans witness game due to severe snow-storm.

First Period Close
Union made it plenty tough for New Castle in the first few minutes of the game, and at the end of the first quarter the score was 8 to 7, with the Bridenbaugh men leading. Morrison annexed the first field goal of the game soon after the whistle started the players in action. Reiber came back with a field goal for New Castle and the battle was under way. The lead saw-sawed back and forth several times in the first period. Teplica plunked a couple of field goals through the hoop, Reiber made a basket and foun, and Komnic had a foul. Union's scoring in the first period was done by Morrison, Phillips and Monico.

The Boydmen stayed fairly close to New Castle for the biggest part of the second period. New Castle was having difficulty getting the offense clicking, whereas Union seemed to locate the basket quite effectively. Towards the end of the second period New Castle went into the lead with Kelly going berserk and sinking three field goals in rapid order.

Reiber Misses Foul
Captain Lester "Bus" Reiber, the blond terror of the New Castle team, kept his foul tossing record intact until near the end of the first half, and it must be said that he dropped in 22 out of 22 fouls in five straight games without a miss. After his 22nd foul Reiber missed two straight. This record will, no doubt, stand for many years to come.

Boron, Morrison and Schaa did the field goal scoring for Union in the second period. The score at the half was 20 to 14. The game was young yet and many believed that New Castle would be extended to win.

After the intermission the teams returned to the floor full of hope. The fireworks were not long in starting and New Castle was setting them off. Almost before the echo of the whistle had a chance to die out New Castle kicked the score up to 30 points, with Teplica and Komnic going at full pace. Union was bewildered and called for time out.

Union's Defense Cracked
Union had a hard time to get their defense working again and New Castle at the end of the third period had amassed a total of 35 points to 19 for Union. Bokon made two field goals for Union and Morrison caged a foul. Teplica had three field goals for New Castle, Kelly had a field goal and foul, Reiber had a field goal and Komnic had two. Had Union played the brand of basketball that they displayed in the first half, New Castle would have had a tough battle on their hands.

Coach Philip H. Bridenbaugh sent in a few sons of the start of the final quarter, with Hnat replacing Komnic and Battley going in for Ridley. Coach Boyd during the third period tried desperately to stave off the New Castle rally and sent in Carpenter, Snizek and White, but New Castle could not be halted.

Hnat Is Good
New Castle uncovered a shining star in the person of "Peanuts" Hnat in the fourth and final period. Hnat, taking up the duties filled by Walter Komnic, stepped into the picture by making four field goals and a foul for nine points. Hnat was the whole works for several minutes, providing a lot of amusement with his deadly accurate shots and fine floor work. It's hard to keep a youth like Hnat on the bench. Anyway, "Peanuts" had his chance last night and came through. Union high was held to five points the fourth period, with Morrison getting them all, through a field goal and three fouls. Morrison, after making his five points, drew his fourth personal foul of the game and was ejected in favor of Carpenter. Morrison was the outstanding Union player. Boron was good, also, with six points.

New Castle's 16 points in the final period made their total 51 for the evening. The score by periods would read this way: New Castle 8, 12, 15 and 16; Union 7, 7, 5, 5.

Union Deserves Credit
Union deserves credit for the fight that they gave New Castle. Coach Boyd has a smooth, well balanced team, but New Castle's offensive attack was too heavy.

The game was well handled by Al Slack and Bob Forbes, the W. P. I. A. L. officials sent to New Wilmington to take charge of the game. Twelve fouls were called on New Castle and 17 on Union.

Frank Tamburini Shoots 93 Crows

If there is one man in Lawrence county who is doing effective work for the farmers, he is Frank Tamburini, Butler avenue, this city. He might be called the champion crow shooter of the county.

February 22 he shot 19 and February 24 he shot 11. Yesterday he shot 35; this morning 28 more. All of them were shot in the vicinity of Robinson's Crossing.

The Lawrence County Sportsmen's Association provides Tamburini with shells and in addition to crows, he kills hawks. He shot quite a few last year. In addition he destroyed hawks' nests, which will cause farmers no dismay.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Tommy Loughran has the same idea as Bob Fitzsimmons had relative to opponents. In other words Loughran is a firm believer in the saying Fitz made famous: "The bigger they are the harder they fall." Tommy's idea came forth out of a desire to fight Primo Carnera who weighs 80 pounds more than the Philadelphia. Since the death of Ernie Schaaf some followers have suggested fighters weighing more than 225 pounds be classed as "heavyweights" or "Dreadnoughts."

In the case of Carnera Tommy apparently dreads him not. He maintains there is no foundation to the report that big men wear down their smaller opponents by leaning on them heavily in the clinches. A skillful battler can always reverse such situations and give the big fellow a dose of his own medicine he maintains.

Although the flying mare has been barred from wrestling rings in Ohio and it would not be surprising were it used tonight at Youngstown when Gentleman John Kilonis makes an attempt to win back the light heavyweight title Joe Banaski claims he holds. Banaski has been going good in Cleveland. Not so long ago Kilonis won from Bearcat Jones in a rather rough match during which we asked one of Kilonis' friends "Why do they call him Gentleman John?" to which he replied: "Because he is everything else in the ring but." That served to answer the riddle. Outside the ring Kilonis is not the terror he is on the mat. Kilonis is a rough brawler but he will meet another tough son of grapple in Mr. Josefus Banaski. The one who takes two three falls will win and with it will go what they claim is the light-heavyweight title.

Southern football coaches have been unanimous in their praise of the new 15 yard rule penalty-clipping rule as adopted by the football rules committees. Opinion on the value of eliminating the sideline play, however vary. A few of them follow: Dan McGugin, Vanderbilt, believes it will prevent loss of tackling out of bounds; Layton Jones, Louisiana State: "It lowers the value both of strategy and kicking accuracy; Bill Alexander believes it will add immeasurably to the strategy of football and says "we will see reverse plays and spinners run back into the 10 yard zone." Chuck Collins of North Carolina says "it's a distinct gain for the offense. Relative to a clipping, John (Clippie) Smith, North Carolina state said "I don't think the old penalty of 25 yards was enforced as it should have been. The 15 yard penalty will be much better."

Harry Mehre, University of Georgia says the penalty for clipping was so great officials wouldn't enforce it. He believes things will be different now.

Maureen Orcutt encountered keen opposition in the Florida East Coast women's golf meet yesterday at St. Augustine. Mary Rogers of Jacksonville opposed Maureen. After the turn when Miss Rogers was only one down superior form caused the defending champion to increase her lead and she finished with a 3 to 2 victory.

West Virginia defeated W. & J. basketballers 38 to 31 at Washington last night.

John Marshall Is Titan Foe
Westminster Court Team Plays Tonight At Jersey City, N. J.

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Mar. 2.—The third of a fourgame series of contests in the east will find the Westminster College basketball team at Jersey City tonight playing the strong John Marshall College five.

The Titans, leaving here Monday, played St. Thomas College at Scranton, Pa., on Tuesday night; jumped over to Freeport, L. I., to play the Long Island Coaches on Wednesday night; and face the John Marshall team tonight.

John Marshall is coached by "Matty" Begovitch, stellar center on the great St. John's College five last year. Begovitch enrolled at Westminster five years ago, but dropped out just before basketball season started.

Lawler plans to start Wes Bennett at center. Bill Douglas and Lou Palt at forward, and Swede Humke and John Wilhelm at guard against the John Marshall team. Tomorrow night the Titans face the great St. John's College five at Brooklyn, N. Y., and on Saturday the party will be on its way back to New Wilmington.

There'll be three hot games in the Church Basketball League tonight at the Y, the standing of several of the teams having been changed as a result of Tuesday night encounters.

Right now Wesley M. E., winners of the first half of the A loop race, are out in front by one game. They'll try to keep there when they play First Baptist.

First Baptist has broken even in the two games they have played, while Wesley has jumped away with the verdict in every one of a trio of contests.

The game will be preceded by another A clash, St. Michaels vs. Highland U. P. St. Michaels has played two games. They won one and lost one. Highland has dropped three straight.

Highland Hopeful
Highland hopes to show more strength tonight than they have hitherto displayed and if their hopes come true they will crawl out of a deadlock with Tifereth Israel for last place.

There ought to be plenty of class in the First M. E.-First Christian B division contest. The First M. E. cagers copped the championship of the first half.

First M. E. has played two and broken even, while the First Christians have won two straight games. In fact, First Christians are only one game shy of deadlocking Mahoning Presbyterian and First Baptist for the loop leadership.

Henry MacNichols said today that he would send St. Michael and Highland first upon the floor. The Wesley M. E.-First Baptist tilt will follow. First M. E. vs. First Christian will wind up the night's play.

Spring Training For Golf Addicts

Spring training for baseball players has long been the custom of big leagues teams, but spring training for golfers is something new. Captain V. Arthur Smith, professional at the New Castle Field Club, has started a six weeks training course for golfers at 114 North Mercer street and has installed two indoor golf ranges.

The captain believes that a few weeks swinging now will cut off four or five strokes later on, and for that reason has instituted his spring training for golfers.

Westminster College Floor Team Hands Long Island Coaches Drubbing

BENNETT IS BIG STAR OF GAME

FREEPORT, Long Island, Mar. 2.—Westminster College basketball team defeated the combined coaches of Long Island last night at the Freeport High gym floor. It was a home-coming day for Coach John D. Lawther of Westminster, former Freeport football and basketball coach.

Glen "Babe" O'Donovan a Westminster floor star in a few years back, and at present coach at Freeport High was in the coaches lineup against his former school, and made three points.

Bennett the Titan center was the outstanding star of the game with eight field goals and three fouls for 19 points. Newton of the visiting team had 10 points. Hesse and Simonsen were the best bet in the lineup of the Coaches. The score at the half was 24 to 12 Westminster. The Titans took an early lead and were never headed.

Big Leagues To Save Expenses

New York, Boston, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Two-Team Cities, Will Use One Ball Park

By DAVID J. WALSH International News Service Sports Editor.

NEW YORK, Mar. 2.—Of the five two-club cities in the major leagues, it won't be long before New York, Philadelphia, Boston and St. Louis will be using the same playing fields for both National and American leagues' games, perhaps in another year or two, certainly by 1936. A discreetly-worded inquiry among baseball men brought this fact to light today and also the information that it will mean an annual saving of "not less than $50,000 and possibly as much as $100,000" to each of the clubs involved.

St. Louis is already doing it with Sportsman's park and has been these many years. Baker field in Philadelphia is to be scrapped, they say, as soon as Sunday baseball is voted into the Pennsylvania constitution. The Braves and Red Sox, it seems, may get together almost any time now, with Fenway park passing to its eternal rest.

Even the Yankee stadium, the 80,000 monument to baseball's enduring prestige, is not immune. The property is ultra-valuable from a real estate standpoint and they say it is "only a question of time" until the taxes become too onerous to carry.

Ruth About Through.
Offhand, I'd place that time not too long after Mr. Ruth passes to his eternal wheel chair. In any case, only the Cubs and White Sox in Chicago are permanently estranged, owing to certain innate and geographic differences. The club that abandons its park in Chicago would be moving any further away from its buying public if it picked some very desirable site in Fort, Wayne, Ind.

In taking the Yankees out of the Yankee stadium, I'm aware too, that I have manfully shouldered a grave responsibility. In the first place, I must set about changing the Polo grounds by building a third tier to the stands, so that New York's capacity for world series, big fights and football is not seriously lessened. In the second place, I shall have to set about changing human nature. Confidentially, I've been working on this idea for a great number of years now and shall be glad to report progress as time goes on.

Duquesne High Trims Georges

Duquesne high topped Georges high 50 to 22 at the Pitt Stadium last night in a second-round W. P. I. A. L. tourney game. The Ducks led in every period. Zelenik and Kocheran were the big stars for the Duquesne team.

Tonight in the Pitt Stadium Monessen high will play Cannonsburg high in a second round game. Cannonsburg in the first round upset Robinson high of Pittsburgh 25 to 16.

New Castle high will play the winner of the Connellsville-Norwin game at the Pitt Stadium on Friday night, March 10. Connellsville and Norwin will play at Greensburg high floor Tuesday, March 7.

OAK A. C. WINS.

Oak A. C. basketball team handed the Junior "A" of Senior high a 29 to 22 defeat at the Senior High floor Wednesday afternoon. The outstanding stars were Zazzarino, DeMark, Avery, Campbell and Massie.

From then on until the last round ended it was a whirl of punches. The crowd was with Ferro, the slugger, although not one of the fans lacked enthusiasm for Herrera's splendid boxing and his ringcraft. The decision was given to Tony. He deserved it.

Herrera-Ferro In Hot Battle

Ferro Makes Tony Hustle In Every Round Of Ten

There have been few more exciting scraps than the Tony Herrera-Frankie Ferro 10-round bout, which Herrera won on points here, May 20, 1929. In fact, punches fell like raindrops. It was a million dollar scrap for a $2,000 house.

Following the scrap the writer wrote that as a boxer, Herrera is a master. When he appeared in other eastern cities the assertion was borne out. It was Herrera's battles here which gave him a chance to grab big purses in eastern rings.

Al Lippe brought Ferro here. He sent word ahead that fans could expect a hot scrap. Knowing little of Ferro, Ray Alvis was somewhat nervous about pitting his Mexican stringbean against the Philadelphia fighter. However, negotiations for the match were successful.

Saints To Play Beaver Falls

St. Marys Varsity Will Clash
With St. Marys Team
From Beaver Falls

Another one of those torrid basketball battles will be enacted at the St. Mary's floor tonight when the New Castle St. Mary's team will tangle with the strong Beaver Falls St. Mary's team. The St. Mary's Reserves will play the St. Andrew's "A" quintet in the preliminary game. The first game will start at 7:30 o'clock.

This is the annual big game at the local floor, and the basketball fans can rest assured of seeing sixty minutes filled with action. Last year these two teams played a whirlwind game here and also in Beaver Falls.

The St. Mary's of Beaver Falls are considered to be one of the toughest independent teams in Western Pennsylvania. The valley team has already won the first half of the P. & O. league, and are out to take the measure of their rivals the St. Mary's of New Castle tonight. Coach "Fiz" Frazer will have his strongest lineup available for the game with Franklin Lackey at the forwards, Lasky at center and Uram and Rowe at the guards.

The preliminary game promises to be a good one with the St. Mary's Reserves trying to make it two straight over the fast South Side church team. The St. Andrew's team wants revenge tonight.

Falcons To Meet Mt. Jackson Five

Polish Falcons basketball team will play the strong Mt. Jackson Indians at the Polish Falcons floor tonight. The game starts at eight o'clock. A preliminary game will find the Falcon Reserves and Campbell Hi-Y. playing. The first game starts at 7:15 o'clock.

On Saturday night the Falcons will play the powerful New Kensington Falcons at the local floor in a return game to the one played at New Kensington recently. The local Falcons hope to avenge the setback suffered earlier in the season at the hands of this same club.

Coach Volesko hopes to have the Falcons at tip-top shape for their best game Saturday.

Pinchot Signs Two Measures

Returns Of Constables To Courts Abolished By Bill
Signed Today

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Mar. 2.—Pennsylvania's perennial and perennial "blind men's parade" has been abolished as a state-wide affair.

Gov. Gifford Pinchot signed the bill of Senator Joseph R. Ziesenheim, Erie, abolishing the returns of constables to the courts in all counties except Philadelphia. The returns, however, may be made upon request of the courts. With the abolition, the constables may no longer collect the fees they received for making such returns.

The governor's signature Wednesday was also on the bill of Senator Harry B. Scott, Centre. It provides that the costs of trials of prisoners for crimes they commit while in prison shall be paid by the county which committed them.

Three Named To Relief Boards

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Mar. 2.—Three executive directors assumed their duties today following their appointments to county emergency relief boards.

The appointments and monthly salaries were: Walter D. Baldwin, Towanda, Bradford county board, $150; Miss Ruth Knapp, Smethport, McKean county board, $150; A. W. Grotesfund, New Kensington, Westmoreland county board, $200.

Prohibition Speaker At Methodist Church

City Of Prohibition Workers
Will Be Held Saturday Evening
In First Church

Honorable Oliver W. Stewart, president of the Flying Squadron, national prohibitionists' field organization, and chairman of the committee, one of the foremost leaders in the prohibition movement now in service in this country, will be speaker Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the First Methodist church of this city when a prohibition rally will be held.

Rev. C. S. Joshua, pastor of the Croton Methodist church, will preside at the meeting.

Mr. Stewart has a remarkable sense of humor, a rare sanity, an utter lack of fanaticism and a wide range of thought and in addition to being a splendid platform speaker he is also a writer of unusual ability.
